pasial to The Warder ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION. - On Thursday afternoon, Dec. 22nd, Mr. E. Broad, who for the past year has had charge of the public school here and who is about to depart to fresh fields of labor was presented with an address, a pen, an ornamental inkstand and a handsome plush alcum, by the scholars of the school as a token of their regard and appreciation of his services during the past year. The address reads as follows :-

Mr E. Broad : DEAR TEACHER, -It is with regret that we hear you are about to leave us for in the short time you have been among us you have won our goodwill and esteem by your unfailing interest in our welfare. We feel that during the past year you have done your best to advance us in our studies, and if we have not made rapid progress it is our own fault. We acknow leage that at times we have done what was wrong but you were always ready to forgive, and when we think of you leaving us to transfer your labors to other The Wittoria at arder fields we feel we are losing a friend who was interested in anything that would benefit us. We hope the success which has followed you so far will continue with you through life. Please accept this present as a small token of our regard for you. Signed on behalf of the scholars. WILLIE WHITE.

CHAS. DEGEER. Mr. Broad completely overcome with surprise made a short reply, thanking the scholars for their kindness and esteem.

This makes six gross or 864 bottles purchased from you since January 16 h, 1892, a little more than two months. The large demand is due to the merits of the preparation, as our customers, to whom we have sold it certify. We find it not only removes the dandruff and scurf, but it is an elegant hairdressing for the hair. Clean to use and has au sgreeable odor. It is one of the best preparations we know of to promote the growth of the hair and prevent its falling out. Wishing you continued success and an extended sale, We remain, Yours truly, INO. A.
