W.U.T.U. NOTES—The regular meeting of the Union was held on Wednesday, Jan 4th. Although the attendance was small a very successful meeting was held. The Union is now thoroughly organized and ready for active and aggressive work. The members believe the surest and speediest way of gaining their object is by keeping up a constant and powerful supply of printed words to invigorate the temperance movement, and as an appreciation of the kindness and liberality of the editors in granting space for that purpose have decided to subscribe for the local papers, which will be placed in W.U.T.U. brackets as displayed at the press committee thinks best.

RHEUMATISM CURED IN A DAY.—South American Rheumatic Cure for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cents. Warranted G. Gregory, druggist.—48-17.

EVERYBODY ATTENTION!—Mr. C. A. Mallory, grand president of Patrons of Industry, and Mr. A. Forster, grand trustee, will lecture in the opera house, Lindsay, at 2 p.m., Thursday, Jan. 13th, 1893. As these speakers have devoted much time to the welfare of the order we may expect something helpful to the society. They will speak in Fenelon Falls at 2 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 13th. A 1 are welcome. Let both houses be packed. A. M. IAWIN, Co. Sec'y for Victoria.

A VISIT TO WARMINGTON.—Last Friday night we accepted a kind invitation to visit Warmington in Simcoe county, to participate in an orange tea-meeting. There was present an immense audience of the youth and beauty, bone and sinew of the county. Many old friends greeted us, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Winters of Orillia, Rev. Mr. Dobson, presbyterian clergyman of Orillia, an old Toronto football friend, Rev. Barn Deas Jones of Orillia well known and highly esteemed in Victoria, besides the Leith, Bell, Craig, Goss, James, Begg, and many other resident families. A most pleasant night was passed. Dr. Ardagh an able young Orillia and Rev. Mr. Dobson both made their first orange speeches. Let us hope they will not be the last. We had pleasant recollections of Warmington from last winter's political meetings; this orange social has made them doubly strong.

OBITUARY.—Mrs. George Stephenson who died on Saturday, 31st ult., whose maiden name was Catherine Moffatt, was a daughter of Peter and Margaret Moffatt of Enniskillen, county of Fermanagh, Ireland, where she was born sixty-one years ago. Coming to this country when a young woman, she resided for a short time in the city of New York, and afterwards to Canada; was married in Cobourg in 1860 to George Stephenson. Mrs. Stephenson resided during a part of her married life in Port Hope, the most part however being in Lindsay, where she was well known and highly respected. Although ailing for some time from an internal complaint, Mrs. Stephenson was only confined to her room for a few weeks. She leaves a family of three, one son John, and two daughters, Mrs. W. Veitch, Lindsay, and Mrs. W. F. Smith of Toronto, two other children a son a daughter having died in infancy. The funeral took place on Monday to St. John's cemetery, Port Hope, and was largely attended, both in Lindsay to the G.T.R. station and in Port Hope to the cemetery.

KINSMONT ENTERTAINMENT.—We enjoyed a pleasant evening at a Tea and Orange social at Kinmont on Monday night last. The programme was simply excellent. The tea, as all Orange diners are, was good. Mr. George Train was chairman. Those taking part in the program were the Messrs. Graham, most accomplished singers and players, and Miss Soward; and Messrs. J. Kingsbury a fine singer, Amos Train, George Train, John Train, Chris Train, Fred Train, Geo. O'Griffiths, Alex. Moore, Rod McDougall, constituting the "B" set orchestra; and Robt. Graham, Chas. McMahon, Albert McMahon, W. Y. K. forming another musical party. A dialogue, a western trial scene was admirably done, as was also a "Dime Apron Degree" scene. Fred Morrison, J. Betts, Fred Wilson, P. Rawlinson, with the foregoing, took part in this. Rev. Mr. Meary, Rev. Mr. Hunt, and Sam Hughes gave addresses. Messrs. Series, James Scott, Bob O'Griffiths and others assisted the ladies. There were many present from Silver Lake, Furness Falls, Gwert, O'boonak, Gooderham and surrounding points. The proceeds were about $40.00.

NEW FLOUR AND FEED STORE.—The undersigned has opened a flour and feed store at 17 William street, Lindsay, where he will keep on hand a stock of all kinds of flour, meal, feed, chop, hen feed, etc., which will be sold at the lowest prices for cash. AUSTIN MOORE.—63-17.

THE FARMERS' INSTITUTE meeting here on Tuesday last was in many respects a success. Mr. Sharman especially being good. Too much credit cannot be given the president Mr. Reid, Mr. Geo. Graham, and also Mr. Sharman for administering well deserved rebukes to certain meddling townsmen who, knowing nothing of farming, will eternally persist in occupying time that should be at the disposal of practical farmers. What can lawyers or other townsmen not practical working farmers, know of the business. They simply in institute matters as in everything else look on the farmers as fools, only fit to listen to their balderdash. There is just where they make a mistake. No more deserved rebukes have been administered for a long time than those given by plain, but honest level-headed Victoria County farmers at the meeting! The time is largely occupied by D. J. McIntyre, C. D. Barr, Dr. Herriman, Tom Fee and others not farmers. President Reid, our good friend Geo. Graham and Prof. Sharman have effectually stopped that work for the future.

REVIEWS.
John Lyle is again councillor of Lutherworth.

Miss Cook of Cameron has burnt River School for 1893.

Miss Moore of Cameron teaches Head Lake school for the coming year.

Mr. J. Campbell of Toronto has charge of Gillanders' school for 1893.

There are twenty-four widows in Manilla, and only four or five widowers.

Mr. White late teacher at Curria's school, Opa is at the Institute for a second class certificate.
