

AT HAND

In a dangerous emergency, AYER'S Cherry Pectoral is prompt to act and sure to cure. A dose taken on the first symptoms of Croup or Bronchitis, checks further progress of the inflammation, softens the phlegm, soothes the inflamed membrane, and induces sleep. As a remedy for colds, coughs, loss of voice, la grippe, pneumonia, and even consumption, in its early stages.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

It excels all similar preparations. It is endorsed by leading physicians, is agreeable to the taste, does not interfere with digestion, and needs to be taken usually in small doses.

From repeated tests in my own family, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has proved itself a very efficient remedy for colds, coughs, and the various disorders of the throat and lungs. -W. W. Bartlett, Pittsfield, N. H.

For the last 25 years I have been taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for lung troubles, and am assured that it is the best.

Saved My Life

I have recommended it to hundreds. I find the most effective way of taking this medicine is in small and frequent doses. -T. M. Matthews, P. M., Sherman, Ohio.

My wife suffered from a cold; nothing helped her but Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which effected a cure. -R. Amey, Puymping, N.

The Victoria Warder

FRIDAY, JANUARY 13 1893. Port Hope Guide.

PONTYFOL, Dec. 31st, 1892. To the Editor of The Warder.

DEAR SIR - In that issue of the Port Hope Weekly Guide dated Dec. 30th, we notice a letter from the Pontyfol correspondent, which is characteristic of the writer, not flattering to the paper, not elevating to the ordinary reader, and ex-remedy disgusting to the more cultured tastes.

Newspapers should be our most potent civilizing agents, mediums for the spread of sentiments and expressions most exalting and exalted, not for general dispersion of the emanations from the cesspool of human degradation.

These latter are what civilization tries to drown and smother out, and when any editor receives a communication reeking with the fumes of corruption and malice he should no more than notify the rational public that a dangerous element requiring the supervision of a missionary, or of a civil authority, or of both, exists in their midst.

In the letter from the Pontyfol correspondent who has long been trying to become conspicuous by growing in darkness and wading in spirits evil and tangible, reference is made to families and to individuals of high standing in our community, and each epithet as "the city of a hundred spires," "White" and the "Fairview dams," "the merchant Prince, the Duke, and the Ward," with the evident purpose of bringing them into derision. These references I do not suppose annoy very much the above parties who have not time to be dabbling in literature where such is liable to be found, but such trash allowed a continuous circulation will in time detract from the merits and power of those ex-emplary lives which have had such design in view in leading into the paths of purity such hopelessly degraded mortals as that illustrious Pontyfol correspondent.

Editors and others may say that people will not know who is referred to or what is meant by the Pontyfol article. If the literature of a paper is to be so characteristic, why not send as a blank sheet.

A READER. ELDON. Special to The Warder.

Cord of thanks to the electors of the township of Eldon.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN - I take this opportunity to thank the many good friends and electors I have in Eldon who so manfully stood by me on Monday, January 2nd, 1893, and re-elected me for a second term as your representative at the council board with such an increased vote. It clearly shows that the course I pursued during the past year was according to the views of the majority of the electors of the township. I thank the noble, loyal friends of Hensley ward for their kindness in increasing my vote. It shows me that I was weighed in the balance and was not found wanting. I most especially thank the many true friends of Kirkfield ward for the large increased vote they rolled up for me on election day. They have all my best respects for their general and liberal support. I thank also the good friends of Bolover ward for their increased vote. They are true, loyal

Wood, telegraph poles and ties are moving briskly and everyone is busy. Owing to the bad roads and weather the polling on election day was very light.

On Monday evening a pleasant party assembled at the house of Mr. Isaac Smeale, the gathering being in the nature of a surprise party.

After taking foreboding possession as it were of the house, Mr. Will. Graham stated the object of the meeting was to testify the appreciation in which Miss Berta Smeale was held by the congregation of Graham's Methodist church in which she had acted as organist for the past three years.

He then read the subject address, while Mr. Sam Wright presented Miss Smeale with a valuable gold watch and chain. Miss Smeale who was completely taken by surprise, expressed her acknowledgements in a few words. Her brother, Newton, subsequently made a suitable reply for his sister. The ladies of the party now took the matter in hand and prepared tea, after which a pleasant evening was spent in social converse.

ADDRESS.

Miss Berta Smeale, Organist "Graham's Church," Opn.

DEAR FRIEND, For three years you have acted as organist and choir leader for this church and congregation, always performing your part with a cheerfulness that lent a charm to your associates.

"For Faith should be cheerful and Trust should be alid; And our toilies and sins, not our years, make us sad."

In the discharging of your voluntary service in the cause of the Master much good has been directly accomplished in touching the hearts and calming the minds of those burdened with the labors of life; that better fitting them to profit by the kind words of wisdom and encouragement that have fallen from the lips of our beloved pastor.

As a slight token of the favor you have won in the hearts of the congregation and choir, and as a memento to recall to mind in future years the very many happy and profitable hours passed together in the noble work of seeking to lift ourselves and others up to a higher plane of thought, God and work, as well as likeness, what God intended us to be, you will kindly accept as New Year's gift this gold watch and chain. Permit us to hope that it may in coming years often remind you of your companions in Ops church, and that when your time on earth is drawing to a blessed close, when your life's journey will be numbered, that loving memories of old friends and happy youthful days may assist in lending brightness to your pathway through the "Lone Valley."

On behalf of the choir and congregation we wish you a very Happy New Year.

WILL GRAHAM, SAM WRIGHT, HERB. GRAHAM. "The New Year," 1893.

NEEPAWA-MAN.

Special to The Warder.

PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS. - A very happy and pleasing event took place at the new residence of Mr. Jas. Irwin, Neepawa, Man., on Christmas day. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin were formerly old residents of Cambridge, Ont., having spent about forty years of their life there.

About four years ago the family circle was first broken by two of their children leaving their home for the far west. As years passed by one after another of the family got married and started out in life for themselves till all but three had left the parental roof and settled down in new homes in Manitoba. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin were anxious to spend their remaining years among their children, and having sold the old homestead in the east a year ago last fall, moved to Manitoba (with the rest of their family) in the following spring. After looking around for some time Mr. Irwin decided to build a comfortable little home and settle down in the town of Neepawa. On Xmas day the entire family of nine children gathered together once more under their father's roof, and after doing justice to a good Christmas dinner, pressed to express the hope that their lives may be spared still further to enjoy each other's company, while so many who set out in life's journey about the same time as you both did, have passed to their reward. And now, dear father and mother, you will please accept these easy chairs as a token of our love and respect to you. My own long life to enjoy the comfort of them and the company of your children at many a Christmas dinner. Wishing you a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year.

REPLY.

In reply Mr. Irwin said, this is a very plea and surprise to us and we are very thankful to you, dear children, for your thoughtfulness and kindness in looking forward for our comfort in our old age. It was satisfaction and comfort enough to us to know that we had been spared to have you all with us once more, and did not expect to receive such tokens of love and kindness as you have shown. We hope to often meet with you all together in the future; but if it is not the will of God to spare us to all meet again to this world, our desire and prayer to God, is we may all meet around His throne in Heaven. And just as we have received these gifts from you, without doing anything to merit them, so you may all receive Christ as a gift from God, who is able and willing to cleanse us from all sin, and prepare us to meet Him in Heaven. Wishing you all a very Merry Xmas and a happy prosperous New Year.

THONDALE.

THE EVERETT SERVICE and Christmas tree held in Thondale on December 23rd was quite a success, but owing to the severity of the weather many were prevented from coming. An excellent programme was rendered by the scholars and many others. The tree was well loaded. Just before the distribution of presents a presentation accompanied by the following address was made by the pupils to their teacher Miss M. E. May, who has resigned her position as teacher:

DEAR TEACHER, - It is with feelings of deep regret that we learn that you have resigned your position as teacher in our school. While here you have made many warm friends both among us and our parents, and we may say that you will be greatly missed from our midst. As we have learned to look upon you as one of the best of mothers, we can only regret that you will no longer be with us. You have always found a ready sympathizer. The Sunday school will also lose an energetic worker and an interesting teacher. In this short letter we wish to express our thanks for the deep interest you have taken in us, and ask you to accept this small token of our esteem and affection, and you may rest assured that you will long be remembered by us, and when we have grown older will hold in sweet remembrance "the days that used to be," and you will figure as one of the principal actors on the stage of our early life. As you go from us we can but wish you every success in what ever sphere of life your lot may be cast, and may the God of all grace grant that we may one day meet in the realms of bliss "where parting shall be no more." Signed on behalf of school,

MAUD CULLON, ARTHUR GART-HORE, MAGGIE JOHNSTON, JOHNNIE MEAGHER.

He Wears a Cod Fish.

A gentleman who was given up to die with consumption happened to receive a visit from a friend, who recommended "Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil." Although having little faith he bought a bottle, and before he was through taking it, found he was gaining a flesh. He continued taking the Emulsion until he regained nearly fifty pounds. He is the heartiest man in town to day. To commemorate his restoration to health he has had a beautiful golden cod fish manufactured, which he wears as a charm upon his watch chain.

It is pretty good testimony to "Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil." Everybody is sounding its praises. In big bottles, 50c; and $1.00, at all Drug Stores. -69 1.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I had been in a distressed condition of the stomach, Nervousness, Weakness of the Stomach, Dyspepsia and Indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any other doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely remedy. A trial bottle will convince you." Warranted by E. Gregory, druggist. -48 1/2.

Variable appetite and itching at the nose are signs of worms. Dr. Low's Worm Syrup is the best cure. -68 4.

Three Practical Points.

Three practical points: 1st. Burdock Blood Bitters cures dyspepsia by acting promptly on the stomach, liver and bowels. 2nd. Burdock Blood Bitters cures bad blood by the same specific action combined with its alterative and purifying powers. 3rd. Burdock Blood Bitters cures all diseases arising from the two first named, such as constipation, headache, biliousness, indigestion, neuralgia, etc., by removing their cause as shown and proved in thousands of indisputably recorded cases. -68 2.

Wild cherry and hypophosphites are combined with Cod Liver Oil, Miller's Emulsion, the best Lung remedy. -68 4.

A Cure for Dyspepsia.

In investigating the cause of this prevalent complaint it is found to rest principally in wrong action of the stomach and impurity of the blood. These exciting causes are easily removed by the regulating, purifying tonic, digestive effects of Burdock Blood Bitters, hence the success of B.B.B. in curing dyspepsia in any form, no matter of how long standing or how severe it may be. -68 2.
