THE LECTURE AND MUSIC MONDAY NIGHT.—Notwithstanding the very unfavorable weather a good audience attended Monday evening to hear the Rev. Mr. Campbell's lecture on "The Three Toms," T. M. Campbell of Scotland, Tom Moore of Ireland, and Tom Hood of England.

THE FIRE IN THE WOODSHED, the general opinion being that it originated from a candle that had been placed there on the day previous. From the position in which the remains of the unfortunate victims were found it would seem that Mark had removed his mother as far as the foot of the stairs, and then went back to rescue his child who as already stated had followed him up stairs.

THE HERO JOHN MARK as he may be called, who lost his life in attempting to rescue his mother and child, was born in the township of Fenelon about 44 years ago, where as man and boy he has since resided, respected by every one who knew him.
