A Double Drowning at Minden. - While

Joseph Muchell, his sister, Mrs. Norman Fetterley, and Miss Best, a young lady friend, were crossing Gull River in a small punt about half a mile above the village of Minden last neet and all three precipitated into the river.
Young Mitchell was a good swimmer and succeeded in placing Miss Best in safety upon the ice bound bank. He then conrageously burried to the rescue of his sister. Unhappily her additional weight, with that of his own saturated winter clething and the numbing cold of the swift running stream, proved too much for the brave young fellow and both perished. Mrs. Fetterley's body was recovered on the same evening and body was recovered on the same evening and her brother's on Sunday morning. Mrs. Fetterley leaves behind a husband and two young children to mourn her less. Mrs. Mitchell and three daughters, mother and sisters of the deceased, left town early on Sunday morning for the scene of the sad fatality. The bereaved families have the deepest sympathy of the entire community Merchants wishing a quicker return from city merchants should yote for the bonus on Monday next.

THE MARK'S FIRE, -The subscription list opened by the Toronto Empire, on behalf of the widow and family of the late John Mark the widow and family of the late John Mark who lost his life by the burning of his house in Fenelon is being nobly responded to, the amount received up to Wednesday evening being $247. His Honor the Lieut, Governor abscribing $10 to the fund.......On Monday forenoon a meeting was held in the Y. M. C. A. roome, which was well attended. A committee was formed with his Worship Mayer R.y. chairman, G. E. Broderick secretary, and John Hore treesurer. Collectors were appointed for each ward to solicit subscription. It was decided to ask the town and county councils for a contribution to the fund that is being raised in this section of the country. It may be here stated that previous to the meetbeing raised in this section of the country. It may be here stated that previous to the meeting being called Mr. O'Halforan had solicited and obtained several subscriptions.... We are pleased to note that the London Mutual Fire Insurance Company who had a risk on the contents of the house for $200, through their inspector Mr. L. Leitch, paid the amount of the insurance over on Wednesday last without demur, although not legally liable, as the note the late Mr. Mark had given for the premium was past due and had not been paid. This incident alone speaks volumes in favor of the London Mutual, an action we predict that will not be forgotten by the farmers of Victoria.

FIRES. -On Friday, night a frame dwelling house on Francis street, owned by Mrr.

Johnston, and occupied by two families, that of W. Henderson and D. Harmon was de stroyed by fire. The fire is said to have originated from the explosion of a lamp
There was an insurance of $300 on the build-..... Karly the following morning S. ur. d.y, the Queen's hotel, a brick building, occupied by Alexander McArthur, and owned by the Lundy estate of Peterborough, was totally destroyed, the fire originated in the celler, Mr. and Mrs McArthur had a narrow the flames baving made so much headway before being discovered. The building is a total loss, some of the walls having to be thrown down on Saurday, as it was feared they would fall. Mr. McArthur lost mostly all the contents. The building was insured for $3,500, Mr. McArthur having the contents insured for $1500 While the hotel fire was in progress an alarm was sounded for another in the couth ward, where two stables, one belonging to W. Teevin, the other to J McArthur were hunned, the origin of the fire is unknown..... Early on Wednesday morning the alarm was again sounded, which in this instance was the precursor of a fatal catastrophe as well as the signal that there was another fire. The house of Mr. William Walters, Caroline street in the east ward was the one 'hat was the prey to the devouring element.
The firemen done good work, as well as at the other fires, and succeeded in stopping the pregress of the fire, a portion of the house being ance of $500 on the house and on contents $700 Mr. Walters estimating the house to be worth $750; contents $1000 The fire was not however the worst feature of this sad Wednesday morning; while assisting to remove the contents Joshus M. Martin, a young man, son of John Martin, east ward, aged 19 years, who was employed as a clerk in the dry goods store of Mr. J. Carter, was killed by a falling chimney, it was not known at the time that he was in the building, but after some time when he was found to be missing a search wes made and his charred remeins were found burned beyond recognition, one leg, part of the other, and an arm being burned off. The inneral takes place to-day under the suspices of Hecket. True Bue lodge No. 38, at 2 o'clock to Riverside cemetery.
