Y.M.C.A. ENTRETAINMENT.—The entertainment held in the rooms of the Association on Tuesday evening last was a notable success, nearly every seat being occupied. The chair was taken a few minutes efter 8 o'clock by Mr. Jas. Low, vice-president of the Association The doxology was sung and Rev. T. M. Campbell led in prayer. The chairman made a few remarks and called on R. Humphreys who opened the pregramme with an instrumental selection on the organ. Mr. D. Mo-S. reyn followed with a solo is good voice; Mr. J. Carter amused his hearers with a reading entitled "The Goose;" A duet by Misses Mallett and Fee was nicely rendered. A solo was then sung by Mr. Slater which pleased the audience highly. He is a decided acquisition to the musical talent of our town and will be gladiy heard again. A reading by Miss King was warmly applanded, and a duet by Messrs. McSweyn and Petty evoked a storm of applause. A brief intermission took place here. The second part of the programme opened with a guitar duet by Messrs. J. Mo Adam and Alf. Roberts. This was well done and called forth a hearty encore which the players gracefully responded to. A vocal duet by Messrs. Watson and McSweyr entitled "Hope beyond" was rendered in good style. An address by R.v. T. M. Campbell was the next feature. He spoke of the homilife and surroundings of young men and gave some sensible advice which will be ot practical use to all who heard it. Mr. W. H. Coombe sang "The Lost Chord" and Mr. Alex. Horne delighted the andience with a Scatch dialect recitation "The lion o' killride." The netionality of this piece and the moral were both sufficiently obvious. A temperance dialogue was then given in excellent style by the following young people, Misses Dawson. Mc Intyra, Edwards, Mallett, Bowes, Rickaby and McWilliams and Messre. Leigh, Totten and Smale. Mr. Slater eang another solo, and the proceedings terminated with the national unthem and

A FINE COMPANY. — So much has been read of Madeline Merli, said to be the new Bernhardt, that the company seems to have been forgotten. The management begs to say that the company is of the very best, and in every way suited to their respective parts both in regard to appearance and ability. The theatre-goers should therefore show their appreciation of the management of the Acad-my of Music efforts in securing this attraction by giving him a packed house to night; Friday, Feb. 24th. There are a very few really good attractions on the road, and they should be greeted by a full house whenever they visit us.—75-1. A FINE COMPANY, - So much has been
