Tuesday, 21st inst., the adjourned meeting of the Dominion Rifle Association was held. In the absence of the retiring president, His Honor, Lieut Governor Kirkpatrick the chair was taken by Lieut Cotonel, the Hon. J. M. Gibson of Hamitton. There were present His Excellency Lord Stanley, Hon. J. C Patterson Minister of Militia, Hon. M. Bowell, ex. Minister of Militia Maj r. to point towards the Martin-Metford.

In the election of officers, Hon. Col. J. M.
Gibson, Provincial Secretary, was elected president, in place of His Hon. Col. Kirk-patrick, who retired. Col. Gibson is also president of the Canadian Rifle League to which position we first had the honor of nominating him. No man in Canada has in the past more fully and freely recognized and expressed his approval and admiration of Col. Gibson than has the editor of THE WARDER. We have always commended him as a model We have always commended him as a model Canadian militiaman, and believe his practi-cal interest in and influence over Canadian volunteers have done much for the benefit of riflemen and the force generally not only in Hamilton, under the shadow of Burlington Heights famous in Canadian history, but also throughout the entire country. The only possible objection to the elevation of Col.
Gibson as President of the Dominion Rifle Association is that he is President of the Canadian R fle Lesgue. This is however in a sense a recommendation. It shows his practical fitness for the office. The objection can be easily overcome when the annual meeting of the League is held. Col. Gibson was with difficulty induced to retain the position this year. He will make a good president of the Dominion Rifle Association.

It affords us pleasure to learn from Kingston of the election of our friend Captain John Gaskin to be President of the Liberal-Conservative Association. The following report of the meeting will be read with interest in Victoria :-

able length His Excellency, a former rifle instructor in the Guards, went into the question of a new rifle for the Canadian militia. He favored a change.

Hon. J. C. Patterson also favored a new rifle as soon as circumstances would permit. His announcements of free ammunition for rifle league matches during 1893, and the likelihood of reduced price for ammunition to rifle associations for practice were received with applause. Indeed, Mr. Patterson never showed to better anyantage on any occasion, his recent experience in passing the estimates having aroused the fighting and other soldierly qualities of that gentleman.

Major General Herbert also favored a new rifle but advised caution. His ideas seemed to point towards the Martint-Metford.

A quiet week in the House of Commons;
the Budget debate still dragging out its weary length. E sewhere are reports of the able speeches of Mr. Wm. Smith, South Ontario's practical farmer member, Mr. S. D. Craig of East Durham, Mr. Wilson of Napanese, and Mr. Boyd the new and popular member for Marquette Manitoba. Mr. Cockbarn of Toronto, in reply to Mr. Davies of Prince Edward Island, made a splendid speech full of wit, humor, sarcasm, and clear sound argument. It will appear later at Considerable amusement was created on Saturday by the appearance in the Toronto News of a report of the "Council Loyal Orange Brotherhood, Toronto," censuring Hon, Mr. Wellace and Sir John Thompson and upholding Dalton McCarthy. The "report" reminds one of the three Tooley street tailors who drew up a report commencing "We, the people of England." There is no such association as the "Council of the Loyal Orange Brotherhood of Toronto." There are three dyed in the wool grits, one of whom is suspended from the wool grits, one of whom is suspended from the Loyal Orange Association of Toronto, who met and formed the "Council" and got the papers foolish enough to publish the report. No such organization exists, it has no connection, as its name indicates with the Loyal Orange Association. It is merely one of the vile grit dodges to create unrest among orangemen. Two or three rank grit orange lodges have also passed resolutions displaying arrant ignorance of their declarations and of the constitution; but these are only a few out of constitution; but these are only a few out of upwards of twe thousand lodges. For example one of their mistakes is to say the roman catholics number only one sixth of the Dominion. The census shows that az egregious wilful blunder has been made by those suspended grit orangemen, and that instead of being only one in six, the roman catholics are being only one in six, the roman catholics are two in every five, while protestants are three in five. The rest of the article is on a par with the above. Hon. Mr. Wallace is daily in receipt of acores of congratulatory orange resolutions from every part of Canada, com-mending his acceptance of office, and pledging confidence in the administration.

A striking example of John Charlton's initials of a member of paritament.

There was great rejucing among conservaparent knows the best possible teaching is the indirect and attractive kind. That is one reason why saloons and dens of vice flurish, and why churches languish. Mr. Chariton in his hypocritical utterances illustrated a point by reference to a term used in gambling Indeed he carried the illustration so far that those familiar with such vile sames, declare he must be an adept himself. The incident has done much to unmask Mr. Charlton's hypocrisy. Another nomesking tock place when Mr. Bennett of Mid and exposed his want of honesty in seeking to force observence of the Sabbath in certain lines, but allowed his, Mr. Charlton's, own tugs to go screaming around Georgian Bay ports hauling logs, and tows on Sundays. Is Mr. Charlton in his anxiety to close the Welland canal on Sunday merely seeking in another way to drive trade to Yankee ports? Out upon such hypocrites. The Government has ordered strict quarantine for ninety days of all farm animals coming into Canada from the United States. This meets with great favor from the British Government as convincing them of the determination here to protect Canadian farmers in the cattle, bog and sheep trade.

The question of a fast line of steamers from a Canadian port to Great Britain was brought up by Mr. Kenny of Halifax on Friday. In the discussion it transpired that Halifax, Louisburg, St. John, Quebec, and St. Andrews, each had special advantages. The orangemen of Uister seem fully alive to the situation they would occupy in the event of Home Rule being granted them. They are already organizing and arming for stern resistance. In case of need there are thousands in Canada ready to go to their assistance A "Home Rule" meeting was held in this city on Friday night and brought out the usual number of "patriots" anxious to "pump wind for the glory and honor of ould Ireland." The usual number of dinners were given this week by Ministers and others. Hop. J. C. Patterson, Minister of Militia, on Wednesday evening gave the most elaborate of the season. Both reformers and conservatives, Senators and Commoners were invited. Hon, John Dobson, who is universally liked, was among the honored guests from the Senate, while as a volunteer, the dinner being semi-military, we were also honored. Sir Richard Cartwright sat beside Hon. Mr. Patterson while Hon. W. Laurier, Messrs. Edgar, Davies, Gilmour. Sutherland and others of the reform party coupied seats around the board.

The commodious room this session occupied by the old frequenters of room 27 last year, is situated in the south west corner of the building overlooking the grounds, Cartier's statue, the Ottawa river, Hull, and the Laureutian mountains. Coatsworth of Toronto, Dr. Montague of Haldimand, Cargill of Bruce, Cochrane of Northumberland, White of Cardwell, Smith of Ontario, McDonnell of Algoma, Dr. Sproule of East Grey, Col. It is very annoying to the preachers of blue ruin and destruction to Canada to read of the steadily growing trade between this country and Great Britain. They can ill conceal their chagrin at any time; but become greatly excited whenever the facts are brought out in five. The rest of the article is on a par with the above. A Rumor Contradicted.

Our readers may have heard of last fall in connection with the sad dea h of Mr. Pym at Minden, a rumor to the effect that the accident which broke Mr. Pym's leg was caused by a drunken man, sent over on purpose to formers of course opposed the proposition, and showed how it would militate against New York and other United States ports. One would really imagine to hear them they were representing Boston, New York, Portland, Baltimore, Buffalo, and other Yankee centres. from the temporary irresponsibility into which an evening's jubilation had placed him, he deeply regretted his folly and frankly said so, No feeling of resentment whatever was retained on either side; and the unkind rumor, that weeks later, Mr. Gainer had sent over a drunken man to raise a disturbance at Mr. Pym's is merely one of those stories that will be raised under almost any circums ances. The following solemn declaration c muletely exonerates Mr. Gainer. Like everyone else, at times Mr. Gainer has disagreements with half way in healing disputes.

An Offer of $100.

The Glengarrian, an able journal published at Alexandria in Glengarry, keeps this offer standing in its columns :-

Some of the leaders of the retorm party are continually circulating among the ratepayers statements to the effect that their taxes, which are increasing largely, go to the Dominion Government at Ottawa and on these grounds attempting to prejudice them against the Ottawa government. Now, these are tactics unworthy of honest men. We will pay any farmer, or any man, in the county of Glengarry one hundred dollars that can show us that there is one cent of the municipal taxes collected from him that goes to the Dominion government.

It is about time that false statements and tacties of this kind should come to an end. The taxes collected are for municipal purposes, county council, township im-provements, roads, schools, etc., and to pay officials appointed by Mr. Mowat at large salaries in the county town and throughout the county. He appoints them and the tax payer has to pay them The Mowat government also takes several thousands of dollars a year from us in licenses and fines-amounts that we formerly had for the improvements of our roads, etc. This is where the money goes that you pay in your yearly taxes. Any man that will make an attempt to tell you to the contrary you can brand as a falsifier and unworthy of eredit.
