

BRITTON BROS.

Quality and price are two great and important considerations in matters of trade.

Buyers frequently lose sight of the former in their anxiety about the latter, and repeat their shortsightedness at leisure.

The Victoria Warder FRIDAY, MARCH 10, 1893.

A union of hearts and a union of hands. A union of men can never; A union of homes and a union of lands. And the flag, BRITTON BROS. forever.

House of Commons, Ottawa.

Sir Richard Cartwright's amendment to the Budget met a sad fate on Wednesday morning last week at 3 o'clock.

Then Hon. Mr. Foster, Finance Minister, arose amid enthusiastic applause from his followers.

A good joke, or rather exposure, recently occurred here. A few Sundays ago some of the cabinet ministers introduced a very proper plan of limiting the members of parliament to dine with them.

But with that for meddling and meddling for which too many otherwise able clerical men are noted, this very proper custom was condemned.

Mr. Metcalfe of Kingston made a brilliant address in reply to Hon. Mr. Mills, and covertly scored the member members of the opposition.

Some men never get drunk unless the liquor is furnished for them. When a public dinner is given it is assumed to want a couple of the Opposition.

Whether on pleasure bent or business, should take an every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figgs, as it not only cleanses the system, but also prevents the kidneys and other organs of the body from becoming clogged.

The Most Desirable Home for Emigrants in the World.

I look upon the Canadian North-West as the most desirable land in America, it is not in the world, for its extensive territory, that is those tracts of agricultural, whether farmers or farm hands, married men with families and means or young men with young women without means, to every one who is desirous of an abundance of room and opportunities to better their condition.

Cleveland's Inaugural Address is Acceptable in England.

LONDON, March 5.—The Daily News says: "It is worthy the occasion, which is recognized universally as by far the greatest one since the American Civil War."

The Daily Telegraph says: "Mr. Cleveland's brave words would have been more convincing to our minds of great reforms if he had not already been in power and failed to do much to root out the plague of American life."

The Daily Chronicle says: "It is a long time since an American president has had the courage to speak such words to his countrymen."

The Standard says: "Altogether, Mr. Cleveland begins well."

The Daily Graphic says: "Mr. Cleveland's confession of faith is full of good sense and is arranged in very harmonious style."

The Morning Post says: "The address breathes throughout a resolute, practical tone."

The Times says: "The address boldly grapples with the most crying evils in American politics in language of refreshing directness."

BRONCHIAL CONSUMPTION is usually the effect of a bad cold and inflammation extending to the lungs. It is liable to follow Pneumonia, Scarlet Fever, Measles, etc., and may also be induced by breathing impure air, or for want of nourishing food. Few think their cases serious and so neglect the treatment. White Pine Balsam, if administered promptly according to directions, will cure almost every time. 25c, at Higginbotham's.
