THE annual methodist tea of this place see beld in the methodist church, on Monday, Feb. 27th, which turned out a success, although we experienced a dis-*ppointment not having the expected presence of our honored M.P. S. Hughes, whose absence was unavoidable on ac | tuture it will be a second Minneapolis. which we were apprised by a letter from him, expressing his regret at his mabiti y to attend, also forwarding a donation in It-n of his absence. As said before the tea was a success. Thanks to the industry of the ladies of the settlement. Of the musto rendered by the choir we cannot speak too highly. Addresses were delivered by the following reverend gentlemen: Mr. McCamus of Fenelon F.lls, Mr. Fraser of the same place, and Mr. Frelick of Norland. A dialogue "Taking the Ceneus," was ably rendered by Mr. R. Suggitt, Miss F. Sarles and Mas ers Willie Pearce, N. T. Robson and W. T. Watson, who did credit to their training; a recitation entitled "The story of Jennie McNeal" was well rendered by Miss Sara Kerr. A social on Wednesday evening following was also a success. Proceeds realized about forty-five dollars. WEDDING BELLS-At Welcome on March
