INTRUDERS.—A party of young people drove out a few mises in the country on Monday evening to spend a few hours socially with their friends. Every one was gay and happy until a sleigh load of uninvited guests appeared on the scene putting a damper on the evening's pleasure. It would seem that there is an overnissed came of touche who make is an organizeed gang of toughs who make it a point to intrude their unwelcome presence at such gatherings, as this is by no means the first occurrence of the kind.

HEARTHY REMEMBERED. — Many and hearty were the greetings that met Mr Harry. Hungerford, s:n of Mr. Richard Sung-rford of this town, on his appearance here on Tuesday as the director of S:owe & Co's, band and orek-stra. Harry was always a recognized musician here, but lately he has taken a new departure. A week ago an actor playing a leading part in Uncle Town's Cabus fell ill and one towns friend at ones took his lines and our young friend at once took his lines and field the hill to the great relief of the manager. His Lindsay friends presented him with a huge buquet at the performance Tuesday

THE STORY OF A NOVEL — Mr. Howells' latest novel. "The Coast of Bohemia," now running through the pages of The Ludies', hthme Journal, was written in four different States. Mr. Howells began the novel at his father's home in Obio last May; continued it is Boston in June; teck it to the mountains of New Hampshire during the anymer and here is making a coin of a wife beworked at it; brought it to New Yerk and wrote a number of chapters there is October; took it back again to Ohio in Newmber, and flushed it in New York last December. And yet, despite all these changes of places of writing, the novel turns out really to be the bright at piece of work that Howells has done
