

The Sunny Side of Business Comes in with the Opening of Spring.

WE HUSTLED OUR WINTER STOCK INTO THE TOWN AND COUNTRY AND NOW BRING UP THE REINFORCEMENTS FOR SPRING TRADE.

Squares of Clothing! Brigades of Suits! Regiments of Coats! Squads of Trowsers, Files of Hats and Caps!

With these we attack the Spring trade, and promise you we will rout old high prices, horse, foot and artillery. We have just returned from a trip to Montreal, where we bought a Stock of Clothing held en route for British Columbia. We were there on the premises, trotted out our offer and secured the goods. Made specially for the British Columbia trade, they are the best value we ever set eyes on.

Our Lindsay Store will be liberally supplied, and we can promise the biggest value ever put before the people of the Counties of Victoria and Haliburton. Look out for our Spring avalanche now coming.

"What's in a name?" Well, that depends. For instance, the name of "Ayer's" is sufficient guarantee that Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a genuine scientific blood-purifier, and not a sham, like so much that goes by the name of "sarsaparilla." Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the standard.—79-1
Mr. A. J. Kerr, formerly of Wims & Co., Deseronto, has decided to open out a dry goods business in Lindsay. The people of Deseronto regret to lose Mr. Kerr who proved himself a capable and upright business man and a good citizen. The Tribune wishes him success in his new venture. Deseronto Tribune.

Will Carleton has written a poem, entitled "Discontent," for the next number of Harper's Bazar, published March 25th. Grace L. Ferris will contribute to the same number a very attractive story, entitled "Our Only Legal Member," and Katharine De Forest will present "A Few Hints on Dress from the French," which will contain matter of no little practical interest to ladies.
Mr. Bert Shaw, for the past four years dry goods clerk in Mr. J. J. Sheehy's establishment, leaves on Saturday, for Lindsay where he has accepted a responsible position in the large new dry goods store of Kerr & Co. Mr. Shaw will have charge of the dress goods department. His many Peterborough friends will wish success in the "Sons of City."—Peterborough Examiner.
One of the most remarkable historical romances of recent years is "Cassan Doyle's" "The Refugees: a Tale of Two Continents," now running in Harper's Magazine. In the April number the scene of the story will be transferred from France and the court of Louis XIV. to the New World and the wilds of the Canadian forest. The intensely interesting story will be supplemented by several striking illustrations from drawings by T. de Thulstrup.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Readers of the Free Press will be surprised to learn that Dr. E. Prouse, for the past fifteen or sixteen years a resident of Essex, has discontinued of his extensive practice here to Dr. R. B. Pettit, of Toronto, who arrived yesterday morning. Dr. Prouse will take a well-earned vacation of about six months, after which his future course may be decided.—Essex Free Press. [Dr. Prouse is a son of Mr. Wm. Prouse one of Mariposa's most estimable citizens. Ed WARDEN.]
Dr. Butler's Golden Pills have earned a great reputation wherever employed. As a nerve tonic and blood builder they are unrivalled.
