

IMPERIAL

BAKING POWDER

PUREST, STRONGEST, BEST. Contains no Alum, Ammonia, Limes, Phosphates, or any injurious.

Scientific American Agency for PATENTS, TRADE MARKS, DESIGN PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS, etc.

The Victoria Warden

FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 1893.

PERNELL FALLS.

Special to The Warden

AS YOUR CORRESPONDENT has been watching the proceedings of Parliament for the last twenty years, more particularly when in session, and my attention was drawn to a speech delivered by D'Alton McCarthy on the Manitoba school question prior to the vote being taken on Mr. Tarte's motion. Now, I would like to ask that honorable gentleman how that speech corresponds with the stand the took when he voted with what was called the noble thirteen, and also with the 19th July speech he made shortly afterwards. An explanation is desirable. Who could make so contradictory speeches? Such a man would have been quite an adviser to help Sir John Thompson to form a cabinet. Now, sir, as an orange-man I had looked forward to the time when D'Alton McCarthy would be one of the leading men of our fair Dominion. But he left the nest before the eggs were hatched. Oh, D'Alton, your days are numbered, and there is another object of humanity, one Colonel O'Brien, who shone as a bright star with the noble thirteen. How can either of you go to your constituents and ask for re-election? What will you call yourselves? The Rev. Mr. McKinnon, pastor of the Presbyterian church and Rev. Mr. McCams, pastor of Methodist church, quietly exchanged pulpits on Sabbath evening, which goes to show what good christian-like feelings exist between them. We congratulate those Rev. gentlemen on the good example shown to their respective congregations. Other ministers of the gospel should follow suit.

BEVLEY.

MARCH 10th, 1893.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—Meeting held at Oddell's hall, Cobouck. Members all present. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Moved by Mr. Hume, seconded by Mr. Carnegie, that Dr. Broad be paid $10 for his attendance upon Peter Trotter, who had fractured his leg, with the understanding that Trotter repays it either by cash or work upon roads previous to next fall.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Hume, seconded by Mr. Bell, that Mary McDonald, an indentured girl, be granted $5, to be expended by James Hays.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Carnegie, seconded by Mr. Hume, that the reeve give his orders on the treasurer for the following amounts.—Carried: George Mathewson, 21 days clearing road of snow, $2; John Harvey, 1 year's rent of hall (oddfellows), $15; Theo. Winter, clerk, salary to February 29th, 1893, $15; distributing statements $2; postage $2.50—$20.50; Mr. Ham for J. O. Revell, bill for plank side walls, $1.38; Nicholas Brown, repairing side walls, $2.10—$34.48; E. Carnegie for Walter Wilson attendance upon Haight Board of Health, $6; Mr. Jewell, tin box for assessment roll $1.50.

Moved by Mr. Hume, seconded by Mr. Bell, that the council adjourn for one hour.—Carried.

Council proceedings continued. Moved by Mr. Alton, seconded by Mr. Hume, that the auditor's report be accepted. The clerk to publish the abstract, assets, liabilities and statements in THE WARDEN newspaper.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Alton, seconded by Mr. Hume, that a new note for six months be accepted from Messrs. Cameron and Cayvan for balance of note due March 29th, after the interest is paid and receipt given for $25 rent of Masonic hall to Jan. 31st, 1893.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Bell, seconded by Mr. Alton, that the collector having failed to collect the taxes, the time be extended to the 10th of April and that the corporate seal be attached to the motion giving the effect of a by-law.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Laidlaw, seconded by Mr. Bell, that Messrs. Alton, Carnegie and Hume be appointed a committee to collect evidence in the case of Woods versus Hixley.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Carnegie, seconded by Mr. Bell, that Mr. Hume be appointed a committee to see to it that Cameron should just north of railway, if it should require doing before next meeting of council; also to fix railing upon each side of bridge on third quarter line and upon Grass river bridge on Base line.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Alton, seconded by Mr. Carnegie, that this council adjourn to meet at a Court of Revision May 25th, at town hall, Victoria Road.—Carried.

MARIPOSA.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—Council met this 30th day of March A.D., 1893. Members all present. Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Moved by Mr. McOrimmon, seconded by Mr. Shaver, that the reeve give his order on the treasurer in favor of Johnson and Oliver, for the sum of $96 for repairing bridge on con. 6, lot 20.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Shaver, seconded by Mr. McOrimmon, that the reeve give his order on the treasurer in favor of Messrs. Wilson & Wilson, for the sum of $18 as per account.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. McOrimmon, seconded by Mr. Shaver, that by-law No. 429, being a by-law to appoint certain officers in the township of Mariposa for the year A.D., 1893, be received and read a first time.—Carried.

By-law No. 429 read a first time. Moved by Mr. Lownsbrough, seconded by Mr. Webster, that this council grant the sum of $50 towards the relief of Mrs. Mark's and family of the township of Fenelon, on account of the great loss sustained by her by fire, and that the amount be forwarded by the treasurer to Mr. John Hore of Lindsay, he being treasurer of said fund.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Lownsbrough, seconded by Mr. Webster, that Mr. Shaver be appointed a commission to purchase a gravel lot on lot 5, con 5, and report at next meeting of council.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Lownsbrough, seconded by Mr. Webster, that this council adjourn to meet again on the 3rd Monday in April.—Carried.

JOHN F. CUNNINGHAM, clerk.

To Brace Up

the system after "La Grippe," pneumonia, fever, and other prostrating acute diseases; to build up needed flesh and strength, and to restore health and vigor when you feel "run-down" and used-up, the best thing in the world is Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It promotes all the bodily functions, rouses every organ into healthy action, purifies and enriches the blood, and through it cleanses, repairs, and invigorates the entire system.

For the most stubborn Scrofulous, Skin or Scalp Diseases, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, and kindred ailments, the "Discovery" is the only remedy that is guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back.

Can you think of anything more convincing than the promise that is made by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy? It is this: "If we can't cure your Catarrh, we'll pay you $500 in cash."

LIFFORD.

Special to The Warden

A VERY pleasant evening was spent at the temperance hall here on the evening of Tuesday 14th inst. The meeting was for the purpose of presenting Mr. J. E. Wilson with an address and purse by his sympathizing friends. Notwithstanding the cold and state of the roads the hall was crowded. The first important feature of the evening was the distribution of refreshments; after which Mr. Wm. Hannah took the chair, and short but pointed addresses were delivered by the following gentlemen, Messrs. Theo. McGuire, Edwin Atkinson, Geo. Staples and J. Hannah. Mr. Wilson's singing highly pleased the audience as usual. The following is a copy of the address:—

To Mr. J. E. Wilson, Reeve of Manvers: DEAR SIR.—It is with feelings of joy and satisfaction that we, a few of your many friends and supporters of Manvers, have assembled here to-night. First, allow us to congratulate you upon achieving so notable a victory under such adverse circumstances. After a period of two months' bustle and excitement, in which you have been tossed this way and that, by party strife and breath-of-scandals, after passing through the ordeal of two hotly contested election campaigns you have landed here safely and working manly, so in order to give the confidence of many more of the electors and a better claim to the position, he entered a protest, brought on another election and thus proved beyond a doubt that you are the man the people want. We admire the principle of economy which during your short service has already begun to manifest itself; for a sound economy is a sound understanding brought into action. We consider the purity of your private life a good indication that your public career will be without fault. Some will say that we have no right to refer to the private character of a public man. Such a principle as that if acted upon would sap the very foundations of morals and exalt villainy to the highest positions. If we expect magistrates and judges to be men of unimpeachable virtues, it is not equally necessary that those who rule the country and occupy commanding positions of trust and responsibility, shall in private life command the respect of those by whom they are chosen. Public men represent the interest of society as well as principles and policies, and in accepting such prominent positions they must expect to bear some close inquiry as to the life and health of the nation and community demand. We feel confident from the amount of earnestness you have shown, from the clear comprehension of municipal affairs that you have exhibited both on the public platform and in the council room, that in the discharge of your duties there will be no compromise with any expectations we may have. Now, knowing that the expenses of this election have been very great and that you are in no way to blame for the protest, we feel it but our duty to help you bear the burden, though it be but the light part. We therefore beg you to accept

of the address and purse which we have prepared for you. We are, dear Sir, your friends and supporters, J. E. Wilson, Reeve of Manvers.

DEAR SIR.—It is with feelings of joy and satisfaction that we, a few of your many friends and supporters of Manvers, have assembled here to-night. First, allow us to congratulate you upon achieving so notable a victory under such adverse circumstances. After a period of two months' bustle and excitement, in which you have been tossed this way and that, by party strife and breath-of-scandals, after passing through the ordeal of two hotly contested election campaigns you have landed here safely and working manly, so in order to give the confidence of many more of the electors and a better claim to the position, he entered a protest, brought on another election and thus proved beyond a doubt that you are the man the people want. We admire the principle of economy which during your short service has already begun to manifest itself; for a sound economy is a sound understanding brought into action. We consider the purity of your private life a good indication that your public career will be without fault. Some will say that we have no right to refer to the private character of a public man. Such a principle as that if acted upon would sap the very foundations of morals and exalt villainy to the highest positions. If we expect magistrates and judges to be men of unimpeachable virtues, it is not equally necessary that those who rule the country and occupy commanding positions of trust and responsibility, shall in private life command the respect of those by whom they are chosen. Public men represent the interest of society as well as principles and policies, and in accepting such prominent positions they must expect to bear some close inquiry as to the life and health of the nation and community demand. We feel confident from the amount of earnestness you have shown, from the clear comprehension of municipal affairs that you have exhibited both on the public platform and in the council room, that in the discharge of your duties there will be no compromise with any expectations we may have. Now, knowing that the expenses of this election have been very great and that you are in no way to blame for the protest, we feel it but our duty to help you bear the burden, though it be but the light part. We therefore beg you to accept

of the address and purse which we have prepared for you. We are, dear Sir, your friends and supporters, J. E. Wilson, Reeve of Manvers.

DEAR SIR.—It is with feelings of joy and satisfaction that we, a few of your many friends and supporters of Manvers, have assembled here to-night. First, allow us to congratulate you upon achieving so notable a victory under such adverse circumstances. After a period of two months' bustle and excitement, in which you have been tossed this way and that, by party strife and breath-of-scandals, after passing through the ordeal of two hotly contested election campaigns you have landed here safely and working manly, so in order to give the confidence of many more of the electors and a better claim to the position, he entered a protest, brought on another election and thus proved beyond a doubt that you are the man the people want. We admire the principle of economy which during your short service has already begun to manifest itself; for a sound economy is a sound understanding brought into action. We consider the purity of your private life a good indication that your public career will be without fault. Some will say that we have no right to refer to the private character of a public man. Such a principle as that if acted upon would sap the very foundations of morals and exalt villainy to the highest positions. If we expect magistrates and judges to be men of unimpeachable virtues, it is not equally necessary that those who rule the country and occupy commanding positions of trust and responsibility, shall in private life command the respect of those by whom they are chosen. Public men represent the interest of society as well as principles and policies, and in accepting such prominent positions they must expect to bear some close inquiry as to the life and health of the nation and community demand. We feel confident from the amount of earnestness you have shown, from the clear comprehension of municipal affairs that you have exhibited both on the public platform and in the council room, that in the discharge of your duties there will be no compromise with any expectations we may have. Now, knowing that the expenses of this election have been very great and that you are in no way to blame for the protest, we feel it but our duty to help you bear the burden, though it be but the light part. We therefore beg you to accept

of the address and purse which we have prepared for you. We are, dear Sir, your friends and supporters, J. E. Wilson, Reeve of Manvers.

DEAR SIR.—It is with feelings of joy and satisfaction that we, a few of your many friends and supporters of Manvers, have assembled here to-night. First, allow us to congratulate you upon achieving so notable a victory under such adverse circumstances. After a period of two months' bustle and excitement, in which you have been tossed this way and that, by party strife and breath-of-scandals, after passing through the ordeal of two hotly contested election campaigns you have landed here safely and working manly, so in order to give the confidence of many more of the electors and a better claim to the position, he entered a protest, brought on another election and thus proved beyond a doubt that you are the man the people want. We admire the principle of economy which during your short service has already begun to manifest itself; for a sound economy is a sound understanding brought into action. We consider the purity of your private life a good indication that your public career will be without fault. Some will say that we have no right to refer to the private character of a public man. Such a principle as that if acted upon would sap the very foundations of morals and exalt villainy to the highest positions. If we expect magistrates and judges to be men of unimpeachable virtues, it is not equally necessary that those who rule the country and occupy commanding positions of trust and responsibility, shall in private life command the respect of those by whom they are chosen. Public men represent the interest of society as well as principles and policies, and in accepting such prominent positions they must expect to bear some close inquiry as to the life and health of the nation and community demand. We feel confident from the amount of earnestness you have shown, from the clear comprehension of municipal affairs that you have exhibited both on the public platform and in the council room, that in the discharge of your duties there will be no compromise with any expectations we may have. Now, knowing that the expenses of this election have been very great and that you are in no way to blame for the protest, we feel it but our duty to help you bear the burden, though it be but the light part. We therefore beg you to accept

of the address and purse which we have prepared for you. We are, dear Sir, your friends and supporters, J. E. Wilson, Reeve of Manvers.

DEAR SIR.—It is with feelings of joy and satisfaction that we, a few of your many friends and supporters of Manvers, have assembled here to-night. First, allow us to congratulate you upon achieving so notable a victory under such adverse circumstances. After a period of two months' bustle and excitement, in which you have been tossed this way and that, by party strife and breath-of-scandals, after passing through the ordeal of two hotly contested election campaigns you have landed here safely and working manly, so in order to give the confidence of many more of the electors and a better claim to the position, he entered a protest, brought on another election and thus proved beyond a doubt that you are the man the people want. We admire the principle of economy which during your short service has already begun to manifest itself; for a sound economy is a sound understanding brought into action. We consider the purity of your private life a good indication that your public career will be without fault. Some will say that we have no right to refer to the private character of a public man. Such a principle as that if acted upon would sap the very foundations of morals and exalt villainy to the highest positions. If we expect magistrates and judges to be men of unimpeachable virtues, it is not equally necessary that those who rule the country and occupy commanding positions of trust and responsibility, shall in private life command the respect of those by whom they are chosen. Public men represent the interest of society as well as principles and policies, and in accepting such prominent positions they must expect to bear some close inquiry as to the life and health of the nation and community demand. We feel confident from the amount of earnestness you have shown, from the clear comprehension of municipal affairs that you have exhibited both on the public platform and in the council room, that in the discharge of your duties there will be no compromise with any expectations we may have. Now, knowing that the expenses of this election have been very great and that you are in no way to blame for the protest, we feel it but our duty to help you bear the burden, though it be but the light part. We therefore beg you to accept

of the address and purse which we have prepared for you. We are, dear Sir, your friends and supporters, J. E. Wilson, Reeve of Manvers.

DEAR SIR.—It is with feelings of joy and satisfaction that we, a few of your many friends and supporters of Manvers, have assembled here to-night. First, allow us to congratulate you upon achieving so notable a victory under such adverse circumstances. After a period of two months' bustle and excitement, in which you have been tossed this way and that, by party strife and breath-of-scandals, after passing through the ordeal of two hotly contested election campaigns you have landed here safely and working manly, so in order to give the confidence of many more of the electors and a better claim to the position, he entered a protest, brought on another election and thus proved beyond a doubt that you are the man the people want. We admire the principle of economy which during your short service has already begun to manifest itself; for a sound economy is a sound understanding brought into action. We consider the purity of your private life a good indication that your public career will be without fault. Some will say that we have no right to refer to the private character of a public man. Such a principle as that if acted upon would sap the very foundations of morals and exalt villainy to the highest positions. If we expect magistrates and judges to be men of unimpeachable virtues, it is not equally necessary that those who rule the country and occupy commanding positions of trust and responsibility, shall in private life command the respect of those by whom they are chosen. Public men represent the interest of society as well as principles and policies, and in accepting such prominent positions they must expect to bear some close inquiry as to the life and health of the nation and community demand. We feel confident from the amount of earnestness you have shown, from the clear comprehension of municipal affairs that you have exhibited both on the public platform and in the council room, that in the discharge of your duties there will be no compromise with any expectations we may have. Now, knowing that the expenses of this election have been very great and that you are in no way to blame for the protest, we feel it but our duty to help you bear the burden, though it be but the light part. We therefore beg you to accept

of the address and purse which we have prepared for you. We are, dear Sir, your friends and supporters, J. E. Wilson, Reeve of Manvers.

DEAR SIR.—It is with feelings of joy and satisfaction that we, a few of your many friends and supporters of Manvers, have assembled here to-night. First, allow us to congratulate you upon achieving so notable a victory under such adverse circumstances. After a period of two months' bustle and excitement, in which you have been tossed this way and that, by party strife and breath-of-scandals, after passing through the ordeal of two hotly contested election campaigns you have landed here safely and working manly, so in order to give the confidence of many more of the electors and a better claim to the position, he entered a protest, brought on another election and thus proved beyond a doubt that you are the man the people want. We admire the principle of economy which during your short service has already begun to manifest itself; for a sound economy is a sound understanding brought into action. We consider the purity of your private life a good indication that your public career will be without fault. Some will say that we have no right to refer to the private character of a public man. Such a principle as that if acted upon would sap the very foundations of morals and exalt villainy to the highest positions. If we expect magistrates and judges to be men of unimpeachable virtues, it is not equally necessary that those who rule the country and occupy commanding positions of trust and responsibility, shall in private life command the respect of those by whom they are chosen. Public men represent the interest of society as well as principles and policies, and in accepting such prominent positions they must expect to bear some close inquiry as to the life and health of the nation and community demand. We feel confident from the amount of earnestness you have shown, from the clear comprehension of municipal affairs that you have exhibited both on the public platform and in the council room, that in the discharge of your duties there will be no compromise with any expectations we may have. Now, knowing that the expenses of this election have been very great and that you are in no way to blame for the protest, we feel it but our duty to help you bear the burden, though it be but the light part. We therefore beg you to accept

of the address and purse which we have prepared for you. We are, dear Sir, your friends and supporters, J. E. Wilson, Reeve of Manvers.

DEAR SIR.—It is with feelings of joy and satisfaction that we, a few of your many friends and supporters of Manvers, have assembled here to-night. First, allow us to congratulate you upon achieving so notable a victory under such adverse circumstances. After a period of two months' bustle and excitement, in which you have been tossed this way and that, by party strife and breath-of-scandals, after passing through the ordeal of two hotly contested election campaigns you have landed here safely and working manly, so in order to give the confidence of many more of the electors and a better claim to the position, he entered a protest, brought on another election and thus proved beyond a doubt that you are the man the people want. We admire the principle of economy which during your short service has already begun to manifest itself; for a sound economy is a sound understanding brought into action. We consider the purity of your private life a good indication that your public career will be without fault. Some will say that we have no right to refer to the private character of a public man. Such a principle as that if acted upon would sap the very foundations of morals and exalt villainy to the highest positions. If we expect magistrates and judges to be men of unimpeachable virtues, it is not equally necessary that those who rule the country and occupy commanding positions of trust and responsibility, shall in private life command the respect of those by whom they are chosen. Public men represent the interest of society as well as principles and policies, and in accepting such prominent positions they must expect to bear some close inquiry as to the life and health of the nation and community demand. We feel confident from the amount of earnestness you have shown, from the clear comprehension of municipal affairs that you have exhibited both on the public platform and in the council room, that in the discharge of your duties there will be no compromise with any expectations we may have. Now, knowing that the expenses of this election have been very great and that you are in no way to blame for the protest, we feel it but our duty to help you bear the burden, though it be but the light part. We therefore beg you to accept

of the address and purse which we have prepared for you. We are, dear Sir, your friends and supporters, J. E. Wilson, Reeve of Manvers.

Children Cry for

Pitcher's Castoria.

DEAR SIR.—Last year I was very thin and reducing very fast, owing to the bad state of my blood and appetite. A friend of mine introduced me to a bottle of B. B. S., which I did not get a chance to try. I obtained immediate perceptible relief from it, have gained strength and appetite, and now weigh 193 pounds. M. T. MURPHY, Dorchester Bridge, Quebec, Que.—78 3.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I had been in a distressed condition for three years from Nervousness, Weakness of the Stomach, Dyspepsia and Indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of S. J. American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely remedy. A trial bottle will convince you. Warranted by E. Gregory, druggist.—48 1y.

The Power of Nature. FOR every ill natured has a cure. In the heart victims of the Norway Pine has the cure for coughs, colds, croup, asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, etc. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup represents the virtues of Norway Pine and other pectoral remedies. Price 25c.—78 3.

WABAUSHENE.

PROMOTION EXAMINATIONS.—Notice has been given that the next promotion examinations for East Simcoe, will be held on the 13th and 14th of April. Teachers are requested to let the secretary, Robert Nesbitt, Wabausshene, know how many papers they will need for each class in each subject.

HALF-YEARLY VISIT.—Public school Inspector Day of Orillia, paid his official visit here on Thursday and Friday last, and reported favorably.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. L. D. Laplante is visiting home and friends in the sister province of Quebec. Mr. and Mrs. Betts are spending a few days in Port Hope. Miss Chew of Orillia, called on Mrs. Went last Friday.

GEORGIAN BAY LUMBER COMPANY.—This is the name of a new company formed for the purpose of carrying on the business, formerly carried on by the Georgian Bay Consolidated Lumber Company, and the Dominion Mercantile Company Limited.

LAXTON, DIGBY AND LONGFORD COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—Council met at the town hall, Head Lake, Lxton, on Monday the 20th February, 1893, pursuant to adjournment. Members all present. Minutes of former meeting were read and confirmed.

Moved by Mr. Davey, seconded by Mr. Butterworth, that the collector be instructed to receive $24 from Mr. Broadway for arrears of taxes.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Greer, seconded by Mr. Suter, that the petition for a plea in mitigation of the liquor traffic, be signed by the reeve and clerk and sealed by the corporate seal.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Greer, seconded by Mr. Davey, that the auditors' report be passed and adopted.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Greer, seconded by Mr. Davey, that the auditors get $4 each for pay and that the councillors their seasonal allowance to date.—Carried.

Moved by Councillor Butterworth, seconded by Councillor Davey, that this council do now adjourn to meet again at the town hall, Head Lake, on Saturday, the 10th day of June next, at the hour of ten o'clock a.m.—Carried.

SPECIAL MEETING.—Council met at the town hall Head Lake, Laxton, on Saturday the 18th day of March 1893, pursuant to a call from the reeve. Members all present. Minutes of former meeting read and confirmed.

Moved by Mr. Suter, seconded by Mr. Davey, that the treasurer's resignation be accepted, and that Mr. John Butterworth be appointed in his stead, if he gives the parties as security whose names is before us, and that the reeve and Mr. E. Butterworth have his bonds signed and all books and money handed over to the new treasurer.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Butterworth, seconded by Mr. Greer, that whereas there has been some mistake of arrears of back taxes against lot 6 in the 11th concession Laxton, be it resolved that the collector be instructed not to collect the same.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Davey, that this council appoint Dr. Broad for day of March 1893, as medical health officer to act in contagious diseases.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Butterworth, seconded by Mr. Greer, that whereas the clerk is incapable to attend through sickness, be it resolved that Mr. William Halliday act as clerk for this meeting.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Suter, seconded by Mr. Davey, that whereas the collector has failed to collect the taxes, be it resolved that the time be extended to the first of April.—Carried.

A Cure for Croup.

CROUP kills thousands where cholera kills tens. For this dread disease no remedy can compare in curative power with Hagar's Yellow Oil. It cures the plegm, gives prompt relief, and soon completely cures the most violent attack.—78 3.

Thorough Digestibility and Nutritive value are two strong points in favor of Milburn's Cod Liver Oil Emulsion with Wild Cherry and Hypophosphites.—75.

Beware of Cholera.

The healthy body throws off the germs of cholera, therefore wisdom counsels the use of Burdock Blood Bitters this spring to purify the blood, regulate the system, and fortify the body against cholera or other epidemics.—78 3.

COLONISTS' TRAINS

FOR THE NORTH-WEST.

To accommodate Settlers going to the Northwest, a Colonists' Train will be run Every Tuesday during March and April, via North Bay. The first train will leave Feb. 28. The berths on these cars are free. Tickets and every information will be furnished on application. Those desiring Freight Cars should apply early.

F. C. TAYLOR, Ticket Agent, Express Office, Lindsay

Children Cry for

Pitcher's Castoria.

Medical Cards.

DR. A. W. J. DEGRASSI, Physician, Surgeon, 22, Wellington Street, Lindsay.

DR. McALPINE, Office and residence—William street north, corner of Colborne street, Lindsay. Office hours 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Telephone communication.

DR. E. S. WILSON, Late of the Royal Infirmary, Edinburgh. Over ten years of successful practice, Office and residence—Corner of Russell and Lindsay street.—176-1y.

P. PALMER BURROWS, M. D. O. M., Graduate of McGill College, Montreal, 1888, Physician, Surgeon, etc. Office and residence opposite Carr's hotel, William street.—48.

DR. SIMPSON, Office and residence, Russell street, second door west of York street. Office hours—9 to 10.30 a.m.; 1.30 to 3.30 p.m. and 7 to 8 p.m. Graduate of University of Trinity Coll., Toronto; Member of Coll. of Physicians and Surgeons, Ont.; late physician to St. Andrew's Asylum, Kingston. Grand Trunk R'y Surgeon Lindsay District. 1784

Legal Cards.

MOSWEY & ANDERSON, Barristers, &c., Lindsay. Offices immediately opposite the Daily Home, Kent street. JOHN MOSWEY, DONALD R. ANDERSON.

MOORE & JACKSON (Successors to Hood & Jackson) Barristers, Solicitors, etc., Office, William street, Lindsay. F. D. MOORE, ALEX. JACKSON. 1833-1y

A. P. DEVLIN, Barrister, &c., County Crown Attorney, Clerk of the Peace, County of Victoria. Office, Keenan's block, over Wessie's store, Lindsay.

HOPKINS & CHISHOLM, Barristers, Solicitors, etc. Money to loan at lowest rates. Offices—5 William St., Lindsay, Ont. G. H. HOPKINS, D. H. CHISHOLM.—1864.

JOHN A. BARRON, Q.C. (Solicitor for the Dominion Bank) OFFICES—New Dominion Bank Buildings, William street, Lindsay. MONEY to loan on Mortgages, or Promissory Notes, at lowest rates.—1838 1y.

R. J. McLAUGHLIN & M. H. McLAUGHLIN Barristers, etc., Baker's Block, Lindsay, Ont. We are now loaning money in sums, large or small to suit borrowers, on best terms and at very lowest rates of interest. R. J. McLAUGHLIN, M. H. McLAUGHLIN.—1842 1y.

Money.

MONEY TO LOAN. Money lent on Mortgage, and Mortgages negotiated. Straight loans at 6 per cent. 1782-1y MOORE & JACKSON.

MONEY TO LOAN. McSwery and Anderson are now prepared to loan both private and company funds at the lowest current rate on good security. 1833-1y. McSWERY & ANDERSON.

MONEY TO LOAN. Straight Loans at the very lowest current rates. Mortgages Purchased. A large amount of Trust Funds for investment, payable on terms to suit the borrower. Farm and Town Lands for sale. HOPKINS & CHISHOLM, Barristers, Lindsay. 1854.

MONEY TO LOAN. ALLAN S. MACDONNELL, Barrister, etc., corner of York and Kent streets, Lindsay. Has completed arrangements with the moneyed institutions and private capitalists in Toronto, Peterboro and Lindsay, and is now prepared to receive applications for loans, large or small amounts, and on Real or Personal Security. The very lowest rates. The most favorable terms.—62 1y.

Business Cards.

JOHN BURN, Issuer of Marriage Licenses, Janville.

T. A. MIDDLETON, Life, Fire and Accident Insurance Agent. Agent for the Ontario Mutual Life Assurance Co. OFFICE—Holtz's Block, Kent street, Third Door East of the Post Office, Lindsay.—1784.

Office hours from 9 to 12 a.m., and from 1 to 4 p.m.

LITTLE BRITAIN

Sash and Door Factory

Having purchased the interest of Mr. JOSEPH MAUNDER in the Sash and Door Factory in Little Britain, I will carry on the business as in the past, and hope by strict attention to business to merit a share of public patronage.

Highest Price paid for Good Shingle Bolts.

Parties intending to build will do well to consult me and see what I can do for them in the way of prices before purchasing elsewhere.

CALEB MARK, Little Britain, 21st Dec. 1892.—10-18.

INSURANCE

S. CORNEIL

A Prompt Settlement.

On Saturday, the 16th inst., my barn in Emily was burnt by a blazing shingle from a burning barn on an adjacent farm. On the 18th, my claim for loss on contents was adjusted to my satisfaction, and to-day, the 25th, Mr. S. Corneil has a cheque for the amount of my claim in full. It is hardly necessary to say that I am highly pleased with the fairness of the settlement, and the promptness of the insurance company in paying my claim