Special to The Warder AT a special meeting of L.O.L. No. 1109, Kinmount, the following resolution of condolence was ordered to be sent to Mrs H. Sobroter :-

DEAR MADAM, - Whereas it has pleased Almighty God in his infinite goodness to call from our midst our beloved brother and your loving trusband of L.O.L. No. 1281, we, the members of L.O L. Nos. 11, 1109, 1281 and L.T.B. No. 6, tender to you our heartfelt sympathy in your loss and the loss our Association has sustained by losing so ardent and earnest a worker in our noble cause; but to you, his widow, the loss sustained is sad and heavy, for es much as we appreciated him as a brother, his virtues showed with brightest lustre around the narrow circle of his home. To you, therefore, we extend our heartfelt sympathy and our prayer is that of March 24th, of over-rating his pugnathe promise of Almighty God may be fulfilled in your experience "I will never Jeave thee nor forsake thee." Miss Annorr's display of millinery this year far surpasses that of any previous year, both in variety and excellence. To the delighted vision is seldom presented a scene of more exquisite beauty than that which met the eye of your correspondent during his visit to her store on the 6th and 7th inst. This display consisted of curtains, draperies, Parisian novelties, beautiful flowers of every shade and color, laces, ribbons, ornaments, gimps, and laces, ribbons, ornaments, gimps, and other articles usually found in a first class millinery store, arranged in the most picturesque fashion. All showed the great akill and good judgment of the pro-prietress, who must have felt gratified by the unbounded admiration expressed on
