THE 45TH BATTALION goes to camp in June and the statement is put forward again as every camp since 1884 that this is the last year the commanding officer will be Col. Onbitt. That officer has been in command of the corps since 1866, nearly twenty-seven years, and though a good officer in his day his usefulness has long departed. However, though the battalion has been deliberately neglected let those of the officers who take active interest redouble their efforts this year again and despito adverse difficulties keep up the honor of the old 45th. Good and true men in thousands are ready to jobs. What is wrong with a parade on 24th May to get ready?

The year of the could not wear any ahoes, and had therefore to stay at home from school. When he put on a pair of dry stockir's in the morning, they would in one hour be saturated with moleture and very offensive even in the collects weather. The disease began to spread over his body, especially his heads and fingers. The thumbs on both his hands became stiff and as useless as two withered sticks of wood. It would be useless for me to try to tell the enfering this boy endured. I took him to two different dectors, both gave him lots of medicine, but all to no use. He grew worse. I therefore despaired of ever having him cured. One day I saw the great benefits promised to those who would use Curround Remedies. I went right away to the drug store and bought them. I must contest I had but little faith in them. However I used them according to directions, and to-day I say truthfully to all the world, if you wish to publish it, that my son is entirely cared, thank God and thank the discoverers of Curround Management dealar. THE Y.M.C.A. CONCERT on Tuesday evening last proved to be a very pleasing and entertaining event. Those who came out to hear it were well repaid. Mr. W. H. Srevens B.A.. took the chair shortly after 8 o'clock, and after singing and prayer called for the first selection. The "Soldier's Chous" from Fanet, which was rendered by a number of young men. Next came a reading from FOR THE PATRONS OF INDUSTRY. - A farmer friend writes enquiring among other things, who pays the expenses of the organizers and lecturers of the Patrons of Industry?" He declares the leaders who come round visiting Fanet, which was rendered by a number of young men Next came a reading from Dickens, "Sam Weller's Valentine," which was given in good style by Secretary Calhous, Mr. Coombe then sang a solo "Two Spoons" and had to respond to an encore. "A pair of old boys," the subject of Mr. Ped'ar's reading was well rendered and very amusing. Following this was an alto solo "The dear Home Land" by Miss B. Walters, which was given in her namal pleasing way. Messrs. Watson. are doing so at the expense of the farmers, and are merely working up an agitation for their own selfish ende. In reply we cannot give any definite answer but hope our friend is wrong. The organizers have admitted, he says, that each gets as much as would buy a few binders for each township; while the leaders cost the farmers something more in dues. nowever, if they do good the ontlay is cheap, and we believe the Patrons and Grangers may do much real good to the country.

in her usual pleasing way, Messrs, Watson, Morgan, Bowe and McCrimmon closed the first part of the programme with a quartette entitled "Hail Smiling Morn," which was heartily encored. The clarionette duet by Messra. Albertson and Calvert was something new. It was well executed and called forth an encore which was responded to. Mr. S. Perrin's reading this was very ampaing. It was Burney was a member. Some years ago Mr. McBurney had an attack of paralysis from which he partially recovered, but successive attacks rendered him helpless. For some time he had been in the home of incurables Toronto where his friends had placed him, and where he died on Friday. A carpenter by trade, he was at one time a large contractor, many of the buildings in town being erected by him. The buildings in town being erected by him.
