Perhaps, though, some awful expose of financial blundering came to your knowledge in 1892? No, that could not be; the Finance Miraster was able to take duties off sugar which would have yielded over $5.0 0.000 on the basis of the taxation of 1.890-91. More than this it was shown, prior to the melancholy resolution introduced by you, that the per capica customs borden in 1891-92, was $4.25, being a reduction of 76 cents per head. In fact the total duty collected in 1891-92, from customs was smaller than in the year 1882 by $1,200,000; than in 1897, by $2,000,000; than in 1889-90, by $3,500-900, and, as Mr. Foster remarked, "showing that the contention is true that the present Government, in the furtherance of its policy, is from year to year mot only You profess to be convinced that the National Policy has created trusts and combinations and all manuer of dangerous cabals, conspiracies and plots against the consumer.
