POSTMASTERS SHOULD READ THIS -From the Annapolis, Nova Scotia, Spectator it appears that the postmaster in that town has pears that the postmaster in that town has been convicted of not delivering pertain papers that were regularly addressed. The postmaster has been in the habit of using what papers suited him, and frequently failed to distribute journals, reports, and other mail sent him. Postmasters too often consider themselves privileged to handle and deal with mails as their own sweet wills dictate. There is no question whatever the Annapolis postmaster should be promptly dismissed. It would serve as a wholesome lesson to all of Canada. GRAND LODGE OF LOYAL TRUE BLUES.
