PURELY VEGETABLE

—Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

They're a compound of refined and concentrated botanical extracts.

These tiny, sugar-coated Pellets—the smallest and the easiest to take —absolutely and permanently cure
Constipation, Indigestion, Sick and Bilious Headaches, Dizziness, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach, and bowels.

They cure permanently, because they act naturally. They don't shock and weaken the system, like the huge, old-fashioned pills. And they're more effective. One little Pellet for a corrective or laxative
—three for a cathartic.

They're the cheapest pills you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get.

For a perfect and permanent cure of Catarrh, take Dr. Sagar's Catarrh Remedy. Its proprietors offer $500 reward for an incurable case.

Uncle Sam's Proposal.

O Canada, sweet Canada,
Thou maiden of the frost,
From Flattery Cape to Sable Cape,
With love for thee we're crossed.

We could not love thee less nor more,
We love thee clean to Labrador;
Why should we longer thus be vexed?
Consent, coy one, to be annexed.

O Canada, sweet Canada,
Our heart was always true;
You know we never really cared
For any one but you.

Your veins are of the purest gold,
(We're mined them some, the truth be told)
True wheat are you, spite chaff and scores,
And O, your dairy ears (of corn).

O Canada, sweet Canada,
John Bull is much too old
For such a winsome lass as you—
Leave him to pass and scold;

Tell him a stater you will be,
He loves you not so much as we;
Fair maiden, stand not thus perplexed,
Come sweethearts come to be annexed.

Miss Canada's Reply.

(Written by Inspector Examia.)

Dear Uncle Sam, cute Uncle Sam,
I fear you woe in vain:
Its what I've got, not what I am,
That causes you the pain.

You've most people, I must land,
This is why you seek my hand;
"You love my veins of purest gold,"
But for sweet words they can't be sold;

So pray, cute uncle, be not vexed,
If I decline to be annexed.

O public lands, you're nothing left,
Of timber acres a dime,
Your native offspring you're left-
For Russia, Swede and Pole.

Whilst I've some millions acres good,
Reserved for offspring as it should;
"You love me clear to Labrador,"
The plain what all this love is for;

So pray, fast uncle, be not vexed,
If I decline to be annexed.

Your timber's gone and in its stead
You've got a dozen millionaires;
You've many children short of bread,
While some are play at "Balls and Bears."

You need my timber and my land,
This is why you seek my hand;
Once you possess my mines of nickel,
I fear you'd soon prove rather fishy;

So pray, cute uncle, be not vexed,
If I decline to be annexed.

You've found that I have all that's good,
Of things now scarce in your domain;
I've endless prairie, lumber, wood,
Is this the cause of your refrain?

My inland and my ocean fish,
More than love of me you wish;
You love my fish—you love my "bait,"
I like you, but your greed I hate;

So pray, cute uncle, be not vexed,
If I decline to be annexed.

Treaties broken, Uncle Sam,
Think you that I've forgot;
Your wooden armaments, bayonet hand,
Some battles that we've fought;

Your greed for seals, our harpoons rusted,
Some people say you can't be trusted;
My working men to bundle back;
So pray, cute uncle, be not vexed,
If I decline to be annexed.

Of negro children in the South,
You have ten millions, Uncle Sam,
Who love you not—besides such grists
Of "biscuits," foreign, anarchic.

The latter came through greed of gain,
The blacks by force, with scourge and chain;
Should I forsake dear grandpa mine,
All of these I'd have to join;

So pray, cute uncle, be not vexed,
If I decline to be annexed.

You're hostile Fenians in your land,
With dynamites in their trail;
You've politicians far too rash,
Who'd like to twist our lion's tail.

You let McKinley and his band
Rear your people out of hand;
Your lynchers and your high taxation
Make me dislike your annexation;

So pray, cute uncle, be not vexed,
If I decline to be annexed.

You think my Papa's growing old;
He's old in ships, in wealth, in gold;
He's wise as old, and strong and true,
And will not give his child to you.

To preach sedition, pray, why roam
You've had that kind of thing at home;
Do you forget you had to crave,
Aid from poor down-trodden slave?

So pray, cute uncle, be not vexed,
If I decline to be annexed.
