Re The Canadian Star.

Dear Sir,—Your issue of the 21st inst. contained some statements purported to have been written by W. Kendy, Esq., concerning the treatment of Dr. Nasmith's horse the Canadian Star, I now take the opportunity to abnegate those statements, arising as they do from the factious temper of a perfidious man. His plans to vilify and calumniate not only my professional reputation but my personal character, are on the whole abortive. They only conduce to the utter defamation of his own character and serve as a panegyric to mine. Laudable to my practice as they are yet I shall and serve as a panegyric to mine. There should be but one system of public schools, and these should be non-sectarian. Your committee therefore recommends that this grand lodge pledge itself, as far as in its power, to assist the people of Manitoba in maintaining and perpetuating the principle of public schools. The communication from Rt, W. Bro. Fowler, of New Brunswick, indicates a most serious condition of affairs in connection with the school question in that province. Your committee can only recommend the brethren of the province children under 13 years, 25 cents. Brunswick, indicates a most serious condition of affairs in connection with the school question in that province. Your committee can only recommend the brethren of the province to stand firmly and fearlessly to the broad principles underlying our noble order. Junius says: "The subject who is truly loyal will neither advise nor submit to arbitrary measures." We would, therefore, recommend that the truth, the greatest of all educators, be intelligently placed before the Canadian public, and that such direct encouragement as this grand lodge can give be extended to our brethren in New Brunswick.

The committee congratulates the M. W. G. M. Wallace on the noble stand taken by him both at Kingston, at the banquet in honor of our worthy brother, Capt. John Gaskin, and in the national Parliament at Ottawa, on the question of Home Rule for Ireland. In reference to the communications from the Ulster Loyalist Union, your committee would highly recommend that not only the earnest sympathy and active support of this grand lodge be extended to the Ulster brethren in their efforts to show the disastrous effects which would result from the passage of the Home Rule bill, but also recommend that active aid be granted by this grand lodge to the union in order to enable them to carry out the good work. His fearless conduct when assailed in Parliament reminds one of the hercic firmness of the "men of Derry" two hundred years ago.

Grand Master Fowler to fight the New Bruns-wick school case; $500 to Lord Ranfurly for Ulster Loyalist cause; $200 to Grand Master falbraith for the cause in Quebec where orangeism is rapidly spreading; and much other important work was transacted. Then the officers were elected, and unfinished business discussed, when the grand lodge closed at nearly three o'clock in the morning.

A MOBNING IN SPEECH, SONG AND STORY.

Vol. XXXVII.-Whole No. 1899

The night was already far spent when the grand lodge closed its sitting, so on invitation of the Manitoba and North West delegates, grand officers Marshall, son of David Marshall formerly of Port Hope, Jas. Morrow, W. Stewart and G. Hamilton, as grand a lot of men as can be found, about sixty brethren assembled in a large room to pass the early morning hours in speech, song and story. We were honored by being placed as chairman and several others led in the songs; Major John Hughes of Clarke and J. W. Bell, ex-M. P., Addington, and others recited; while speeches and stories came thick and fast from speeches and stories came thick and fast from grand master Wallace, grand secretary Bir-mingham, Capt. Thompson, Major White of St. Mary's, the Manitoba delegates, Marshall, Morrow and Stewart, the great North West Hamilton, besides individuals from every part of Canada. Dr. R. B. Orr of Parkdale, of Canada. Dr. K. B. Orr of Farkdale, Toronto, gave a rousing patriotic speech, which, coupled with a soul-stirring song from Capt. Orr and Mr. Miller, roused A. F. Campbell of Brampton, M.P.P. for Algoma, to a high pitch of elequence. As the sun arose the assembly were sitting listening to the finent and thrilling words of Algoma's worthy member, setting forth the beauties, advantages and future greatness of Canada and the orange order. His burning words echoing along the halls roused the few slumberers, who came forth from their beds and half who came forth from their beds and half dressed stood in the corridor to catch the inspiring notes. Rarely has such magnificent eloquence re-echoed in any halls. The lamps had long been extinguished, and as it was nearing six o'clock the brethren parted after singing "The Year That's Awa," "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the Queen." Rarely has ever an informal gathering produced a better programme. Every song and speech was of the most loyal and patriotic or heart touching character. Even Mr. Stewart's side-splitting comic speech was full of loyalty and devotion. The boys will long remember that eventful night.

Preparations for leave-taking occupied the grandmaster Wallace, grand secretaryBirmingham, Lord Ranfurly of the Ulater loyalist union in Great Britain, of grandmaster Geo. Fowler of New Brunswick on the school question there, and various other papers. At nine o'clock on Wednesday morning the following report was prepared.

Freparations for leave-taking occupied the balance of the morning. Good-byes were said, the honest grasp of a brother's hand in itself

THE ATTACK ON THE GRAND MASTER.

Your committee, after due inquiry, have learned that the person put forward to attack our M. W.G. M. in Parliament is a man formerly an orangeman, but for vears not in connection with the order. Your committee, however, recommends that prompt action be taken to inquire fully into the premises, to give the offender an opportunity of explaining his unbrotherly conduct in the House of Commens, for Mr. Dawson, the member referred to, spoke as an orangeman, and deal with him accordingly.

The reference to orange halls serving as places wherein protestant clergymen conducted religious services merely shows that the brothern thoughout the land are proving themselves in practice as well as in theory to be forward in every good cause.
