DYSENTERY

Since our last meeting affairs in the motherland have assumed a serious form. Mr. Gladstone's Home Rule Bill, virtually conceding the independence of Ireland and disrupting the Empire, is being rapidly rushed through the British House of Commons by sheer force of numbers. For the first time in the history of responsible Government the people's representa-For the first time in the history of responsible Government the people's representatives in Parliament are denied the right of free discussion on a measure whose principles, or rather want of principles, threaten the very foundation, the integrity of this grand empire. The patriotic conduct of the loyalists of Ireland, England, Scotland and Wales, in vigorously opposing by every constitutional means the passage of such a measure, meets with our earnest approval. I have pleasure in laying before this grand lodge communications and petitions from the Ulster Loyalists' Union, and I warmly commend them to you fer your sympathy and cooperation. It is our bounden duty to give to the brethren in Ulster and the other provinces our active aid in their glorious struggle for faith and iatherland.

MARVELLOUS PROSPERITY.

MARVELLOUS PROSPERITY. In conclusion, I congratulate the grand lodge on the marvellous prosperity which has characterized our efforts as an association throughout the year. Orangelsm is now firmly established from the rockbound shores of Newfoundland on the east, to the placid waters of the Pacific on the west, and away to the great Mackenzie river on the north. Orange halls dot the surface of the land, eyer found with the pioneers of civilization, serving with the pioneers of civilization, serving as rallying centres for the spread of the principles of civil and religious liberty, and also for the dissemination of protestantism, they being in many places placed at the disposal of the clergy of the various protestant bodies, as places of public

The brethren of the grand lodge were unanimous in their desire to maintain the hands of those carrying on the work of the various primary lodges, and a well prepared scheme was adopted by the grand lodge, which, if brought into operation, would no doubt have a very marked effect in the history of our association in the Province of Quebec.

The following day I visited the Provincial Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario East, at their annual meeting at Tweed, at which there was one of the largest gatherings that has perhaps occurred in the history of that prosperous grand lodge. LODGE SUPLIES.

LODGE SUPLIES. Amost Worshipful. Six and Derriken, In accordance with constitutional practice, I have great pleasure in presenting the anniversary in Canada, our brethern in Ireland and elsewhere were likewise engaged. The progress of Orangeism is a conspicious historical fact, and it as conspicious historical fact, and it among the best of Queen Victoria's sons. It is found to-day strong in British America, which contains a brief resture of the Australian and South African colonies, rapidly advancing in the motherland. The celebrations this year have been the most enthusiastic and successful in the history of the association far surpassing any previous ones in the number of members present, the number of victors, as well as in earnest appression all parts of our great lakes, and issue of the sime and object of Orange-ism. Enormous meetings were held in every provinces. In the TRIENNIAL COUNCIL.

There are now twenty-five Grand todges working under the jurisdiction of the Triennial Council, and from nearly all those logges, recent annual reports have been received, a careful perusal of which elicits the fact that the Orange Association has included under its banner avant fame of Algoma, standing and the large of the grand of Sault Ste. Marie, in the fart fame of the sick and districts of Algoma, standing and the large of the grand of the sick and districts of Algoma, standing and the large of the grand of the sick and districts of Algoma, standing and the large of the grand of the sick and districts of the Grand of the s

THE ORANGE SENTINEL. To the brethren of British America it seems almost unnecessary to say a word on behalf of The Orange Sentinel now so well known throughout every portion of our jurisdiction, or of the splendid premium pictures which from year to year has been given to its subscribers in addition to the valuable reading matter which from week to week appears in its columns, and which ought to make The Sentinel a welcome visitor in the homes of every orangeman and loyalists. During the past year, Bro. R. R.
