ORONO.

SATURDAY, Aug. 26th.—Mr. Samuel Hanna of Manvers, met with an accident last week that came near ending his life. He was working in a mow in the barn when he suddenly dropped through, but fortunately he struck in such a way as not to break any limbs. His side and shoulders were so badly injured, however, that a physician was called.

Dr. James Windel is home from the other side, spending vacation. The Dr. has a hospital with him and his wife has it with considerable skill, visiting neighboring towns.

Mr. Brown, merchant of Lindsay, is visiting at his friend's, Mr. W. H. Johnston.—Orono News.

KIRAFIELD.

Successful Pupils.—Nine candidates were admitted to our school to the recent entrance and public school leaving examination and all passed most creditably, viz., 6 on the entrance and 3 on the leaving. Miss Melinda McKennie heading the list of over 40, who wrote here on the entrance, and Master Antoine Vassar heading the list of those who wrote here on the leaving, none of those pupils took either temperance or agriculture. The fees furnished by Inspector Adams with the following marks obtained by each pupil:—Entrance class—Melinda McKennie 680; Ida Vassar 481; Jennie Campbell 467; Myra McFadden 466, W. Chisholm 496; Eliza King 411. Leaving class—Antoine Vassar 568, Eva M. Cowan 573; Jennie McKennie 564.

ROWDYISM.—There are a number of rowdies from the surrounding country who make it a point to come in here and get drunk and proceed to paint our fair village 'red' as they term it. This nuisance has been repeated time and again until our villagers are about tired of it. There is one family in particular who has time and again tried our patience during the past number of years, until they begin to think that they can do all the fighting, (sever fair), swearing, etc., they please without being molested; but they have reached the length of their tether and the sooner they learn to do better for themselves, the better for all of us. We find that if they cannot come in here and do their business quietly and depart peaceably that their pocket-books are apt to become considerably lighter. One young man last week who thought to run things as he pleased, was refused liquor by Mr. H. Campbell and came in here to the home, having an abusive conversation, he soon got into a row and got a trimming, and on Saturday evening was relieved by Magistrate Neal of about $25. Let a few others of the same stamp take warning. We have one of the quietest little villages in Ontario except those that outside gangs come in and strangers are apt to judge of us by those towns, but we are not going to stand it any longer.

Visitor.—Mrs. (Rev.) Vickers of Canington is the guest of Mrs. Rod, McKenzie.

SCHOOLS OPENED.—The schools opened on Monday, Aug. 21st with a full attendance.

MINDEN.

The Minden Ex., Agricultural Show will be held on Tuesday, 8th, October.—Echo.

Miss Lillian Delamere left here on Thursday morning for Port Hope where she assumes duty as a teacher at the close of the holiday season.—Echo.

Dr. and Mrs. Curry of this place started for the World's Fair Chicago yesterday morning, they were also accompanied by their little son Willie as far as Osnemo. We hope they will have a pleasant trip.—Echo.

Rev. W. A. Bunnell of the Methodist church here, left for Pickering on Monday morning last, and returned yesterday evening, bringing with him a charming young bride, having been married on Wednesday the 16th inst. to Miss Leavens of that place. The Minden Cornet Band serenaded them on their arrival home. We wish the happy couple long life and prosperity.—Echo.

Result of July Examinations 1893.—District 3rd class certificates—Carrie Armstrong; Henrietta Bain; Lula Carl; Ruth Craig; Hannah Milburn; Ella McElwain; Jennie Pritchard; Bertha Southworth; Emma Wilson; J. A. Selgwick. Examinations—Bretanne Henderson; Emily Mont.—Echo.

THE CROSS.—The hay crop in this locality is now pretty much all saved and is the heaviest ever cut in this county, the grain is coming in rapidly and some has been already harvested. The wheat crop is said to be unusually good in quality and yield. The oat crop is also excellent, peas stand the average. The root crops promise well, so that the farmers here have much to be thankful for to the giver of all bounties.—Echo.

VALDENSE.—We felt ashamed to record the fact that the handsome monument recently erected by the Brown family in the memory of David Blair in the Minden Cemetery has been shamefully mutilated by some one evidently striking the beautiful polished surface on which the inscription is cut with a stone in a couple of places, breaking the polish and leaving a rough indentation. It is appalling. We can hardly believe there is anything human living in this neighborhood who would be guilty of such a dastardly and contemptible act of vandalism, should the perpetrator be discovered we would like to hear of him getting ten years of "stone breaking" at Kingston.—Echo.

Reconciling.—A man going shopping with his wife is usually a most we-behove-looking object in fact always bears upon it the marks of despair. But that is some more who shop crowded with shoppers is a boon there is evidence in the following little story, which is quoted from a foreign periodical. As the story runs, a gentleman who had promised to meet his wife in a large establishment where all sorts of things are sold at low prices was making his way through the throng of women. Forced to pause for a moment near a counter behind which stood a pretty saleswoman, he blurted out:—"Is there anything on earth that would reconcile a man to such a crowd as this?" "Yes, sir," was the quick reply. "Belonging to the firm."
