ROLSOVER.

THE funeral on Saturday last, to the presbyterian cemetery here, of Mr. James ion to the clerk of the municipality with-McOres, who was killed by a threshing machine, was very largely attended.

Fire.—Last Thursday night the barn belonging to Widow McLean, township of Carden, was burned down including this year's grops and farm implements. No one knows how the fire started. MR. A.chy McGilvary has moved into his new house.

Last Thursday, Mr. Fred Staback with his two down boys passed here with a large drove of cattle and young horses, quarter of a pule long, driving them from the ranch home to the farmers of Mariposa and Eldon. The cattle and horses lookand fat and slick.

VISITORS. -Mrs. Stovel and Mrs. Mont- is now. pomery, two ladies from Prince Albert, North West territory, were here visiting friends. They speak well of that coun-tatal accident happened on the railway track between here and Haliburton on Studay evening 8th inst. While Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hughes were going to Baliburton to see Mrs. Hughes' aister, who is dangerously ill, the hand car on which they were riding struck two car wheels which had apparently been placed on the track by some parties unknown the evening being very dark they did not see the obs ruction until within a few on the front of the car was thrown off and hadly bruised on the face and side on the face and side way, to be able at the opportune time, to step in ahead of Mr. Laurier and capture for some time. Mr. Hughes escaped any for some time. Mr. Hughes escaped any the probibition vote.
