October's Party.

October gave a party,
The leaves by hundreds came;
The chestnuts, cake and maples,
And leaves of every name.

The chestnuts came in yellow,
The cake in crimson dressed,
The lovely Misses Maple
In scarlet looked their best.

And everything was grand, Miss Weather led the dancing Professor Wind the band.

They balanced to their partners,
Then gaily flattered by,
The scene was like a rainbow
Just fallen from the sky. And in the dusky hollows,
At hide-and-seek they played;
The party closed at sundown
And everybody stayed.

Professor Wind played londer,
They flew along the ground,
And there the party ended,
With bands all round and round.
