LINDSAY, ONT. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1893.

Vol. XXXVII.-Whole No. 1912

The result of our first week's sale of the MONTREAL WHOLESALE CLOTHING STOCK OF JAMES O'BRIEN & CO. has been phenomenal,

Merchants generally talk of dull trade and scarcity of money. Our selling experience this week leads us to an adverse opinion. From the countless numbers of customers (actual buyers) who have already attended our sale, the great quantities of goods sold, and the large cash receipts up to date we are convinced that there is still plenty of money in Lindsay and surrounding fertile country. The shoppers of Lindsay and County invariably exercise sound sense and good judgment in the matter of

and know well the value of a bargain when they see it and are quick to spend their money when such money-saving opportunities occur as we are now offering.

The daily cash receipts in our Dress Goods Depart. ment, Mantle and Mantle Cloth Department, Ladies' Underwear, Hosiery and Glove Department, in our Men's Furnishing's Department, Clothing Hats, Caps and Furs have more than doubled our expectations, which is further proof that we have pleased our customers and many of the most fastidious buyers both with quality of goods and prices.

mined to double the record next week-double the inducements, double the quantity of bargains and sell double the amount of goods, and we know we can do it.

A word to the wise is sufficient; if you have not already inspected our stock and prices do so at once.

CLOTHING TRADE OF LINDSAY.

LINDSAY. P.S.—Terms stricely cash—and one price—Please do not ask for credit for none will be given.

He never gave even one struggle; did not even move a muscle. He was carried back to where his dead friend both bodies were buried on Thursday evening. I was thirty miles from where this very sad event occurred. They sent an indian after me, I rode all night and got there the morning of the funeral. I will now tell you why I did not have his remains sent home. We were about 100 miles from the nearest rallway tation, which was a serious difficulty; there is a boat plying on the Columbia river, but very irregularly during low water; again we were distant from Calgary about 400 miles, the nearest point at which we could obtain a preper casket. So you will readily understand that it would be a difficult matter to send his body home. The cause of death was certainly Corporation of the County of Victoria.

Lake Steamers Collide.

Sand Beach, Mich., Nov. 7 .- The propeller Albany, of the Western Transit Company, loaded with grain, and the propeller Philadel-phia, of the Anchor line, loaded with coal and general merchandize, two of the largest freight boats on the lakes, cellided off Point Aux Barques in the dense fog last night, and both sank shortly afterwards in 200 feet of water.

Later.—Both crews left in two boats. The yawl containing 25 men of the crews of the Albany and Philadelphia capaized and all were lost. Eleven bodies have been found by the life saving crew at Point Aux Barques. The Albany left Chicago last Sunday night for Buffalo, and had on board 250 barrels of flour, 17,000 bushels of corn, and 75,000 bushels of cats. It is believed that the Philadelphia is insured in London Lloyds for nearly her full value. The grain on the Albany was covered by Chicago companies, and the loss will wipe out the profits on the November
