AN ALVANCHE OF CLOTHING.—Gough Bros. buy three fourths of the James O'brien & Co. stock of clothing—The big Montreal firm go out of business. The largest buyers of clothing in Ontario are Messrs. Gough Bros. of Lindsay. Their Lindsay house absorbs an immense quantity of clothing, and the stores in Peterborough, Belleville, Brantford etc., also run out large lots. To keep up the supply calls for keen buying, and here is where the enterprise and grip of Gough Bros. shows to advantage. Last week, from Monday to Tuesday, Mr. James O'Brien head of the great clothing manufacturing firm of Montreal, was in Toronto. He had decided to out of business, and on his intention becoming known, retail buyers had decided to out of business, and on his intention becoming known, retail buyers from all over the country met him, to consider and make offers for the stock of clothing manufactured and in the warehouse. There were dealers from Sarnia to Halifax, all anxious to secure a share of the goods. Dry goods, merchant tailors and others were all there to make selections and pick up odd lots. These were, and others were all there to make selections and pick up odd lots. These were, however, only the skirmishers of the attacking force. The largest buyers were Gough Bros., who offered 42½ cents on the dollar, and at that fligure secured more than three-quarters of the entire mammoth stock. The goods are being packed and will be here the middle of next week, and then the people will not need a spyglass to inspiration. On several occasions during past years have we had occasion to compliment this choir. It is made up of young people from Islay, No. 9 section, Glearm and adjoining parts of Eldon, towards Hartley and Palestine. They may rightly feel, not conceit, but housest pride in themselves. May Rev. Mr. Macdonald be long spared as pastor in the new church at Glearm; may he ever have the efficient inspiration and essistance of his good wife to help him; and may as good a choir and as large a congregation always support him, are the worst wishes of The Warder to that worthy clergyman.
