The London Advertiser thinks it is laughable to find Conservative papers professing to regard the results of the elections in East Lambton and North Bruce as victories for Mr. Meredith. It is much more laughable, however, to see Liberal journals trying to twist the overthrow of the Government candidates into a success for Sir Oliver Mowat. The Advertiser should pry the beam out of its own eye,—Gazette.

XMAS DECORATIONS. - While all the townspeople are making some special display for Christmas, the windows and store of Hon. John Dobson call for special mention. Mr. Andy Graham, under the direction of Mr. Perry—manager of Mr. Dobson's business—was the artist for the occasion. OPEN ORANGE MEETINGS.—At Fenelon Falls on Tuesday night upwards of one hundred citizens turned out despite cold, storm, deep snow and the prevalence of the grip, to hear the address on the principles, history and aims of orangeism. County Master, Sam Hughes M.P. addressed those present at length. Rev. Mr. McColl methodist and Rev. Mr. Frazer baptist, were present and spoke briefly. Mr. Deyman ably presided.

On Wednesday night at Hartley the methodist church was more than half filled with an audience who waded through the snowdrifts, despite the grip, and the cold, to the lecture on orangeism by the county master. Mr. Geo Ashman ably filled the shair. The result of these meetings is most gratifying to Mr. Geo Ashman ably filled the shair. The result of these meetings is most gratifying to lovers of orangeism for a better idea of the order is disseminated. The journey of the county master back to Lindsay through the snow drifts occupied just four hours—for fourteen miles. Whether all those attending the meeting who were walking reached home yet is uncertain; but the roads were very heavy.
