I open quick the garden gate, I tread the wak of gravel, In cold and heat early and late, I'm always on the travel. A beaten track my footsteps tread;
I cut no sudder caper;
By duty only am I led;
I always bring your paper.

he patterned him some nightshirts on the sewing circle plan,
And he stood it like a man. And she kept hin wildly hopping with her New Year's bills for shopping till he shought there was no stopping, But he stood it like a man.

She made him search for ribbons from Beersheba down to Dan, But he stood it like a man. When she bought some new ball dresses and she killed him with caresses, it was hard, he now confesses,
But he stood it like a man.

She made him wear some neckties that to fearful colors ran,
But he stood it like a man, And as might have been expected, though it was with mien dejected that he smoked what she selected,

Yet he stood it like a man.

But when she took THE WARDER that each week he used to scan, While he waited like a man, And around a bonnet spread it before he'd even read it—why, he cussed, and then she said it Was just like a horrid man.
