CANDIDATE.

The liberal conservatives of East Victoria met in Jordan's hall Fenelon Falls on Tuesday last, and was one of the met successful conventions ever held by the association. The very inclement weather did not cool the ardor of the delegates who were assembled from the extremes of the riding, and the difficulties in reaching the place of meeting only seemed to stimulate the delegates, nearly one hundred in purples. extremes of the riding, and the difficulties in reaching the place of meeting only seemed to stimulate the delegates, nearly one hundred in number, to greater enthusiasm. J. H. Harvey, E.q., president of the association, opened the convention at eleven o'clock a.m. in a style peculiarly his own, full of lite, enthusiasm and wit. The venerable secretary of the association, J. D. Naylor, was not present at the opening, but very shortly after took his place; Mr. S. Suddaby having been appointed secretary pro tem. The election of officers was the first business before the convention, and Mr. Harvey suggested to let the vention, and Mr. Harvey suggested to let the honors go round, and to put another man in his position. The association negatived this suggestion by re electing Mr. Harvey as president without any opposition. Mr. Naylor asked to be relieved, but it was fe't that the asked to be relieved. But it was let that the right man was in the right place and he was re-elected. A resolution of condolence at the loss the association has sustained by the death of Mr. Joseph McArthur, who for many years was president of the association was passed by a standing vote; also a resolution expressing the continued confidence in their esteemed
