NIAGARA FALLS, Feb. 25 .- Charters have been asked from the New York State Legislature to build two bridges across the river for use of trolley lines. Califon and Drummond-ville Street Railrobd is to be converted into an electric road, and the capitalists at the back of the scheme are the men applying for the charter. It is estimated that the bridge will cost about $200,000 It is the intention of the company to eventually have an electric belt line on both sides of the river.
