

series... all stock of all... and will be... ary one.

ivery are any... Trade.

ware

ELL

s.

Men.

Ask to see our 50c. Black Henriettas.

MONEY MONEY MONEY

$250,000 TO LOAN ON

Mortgage Security OR ON APPROVED INDORSED NOTES

At Reasonable Rates of Interest.

NOTES Discounted for any term not exceeding 18 months.

CASH ADVANCED ON FARMERS' SALE NOTES.

CASH PAID FOR MORTGAGES & DEBENTURES

SPECIAL PRIVILEGES OF REPAYMENT

How THAT MONEY IS CHEAP

Real Estate Bought and Sold on Commission.

GENERAL INSURANCE AGENT.

J. H. SOOTHERAN, Banker and Broker,

91 KENT ST., LINDSAY, ONT.

ARTISTS' AND PAINTERS' SUPPLIES.

Aspinall's Wonderful Enamel Winsor & Newton's Tubes.

Johnson's Mixed Paint. Senor's Floor Paint.

Kalsomine. Alabastine.

J. G. EDWARDS & CO Importers and Dealers in Hardware, Cements, Plaster, etc., etc.

GEO. A. LITTLE Book & Stationery Store

New and Artistic Stationery. PEQUOT COBBWEB. IRVINGE. HURD'S LINEN CLOTH.

TERRA COTTA. HELIOTROPE. PRIMROSE, etc., etc.

The Victoria Warder FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1894.

LOCAL JOTTINGS. URBAN AND SUBURBAN.

To RENT.—A good sized roomed house—apply to Mrs. D. G. Oliver, cor. Lindsay and Gilmour streets.—25-17.

FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1894.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—J. Britton (of the firm of Britton Bros., Jewelers, Lindsay), issues a marriage license for $2.00. East end of Kent street.—17-14-1.

HERE are varieties of the word mother, all bearing a distinct resemblance Anglo-Saxon, modern; Persian, med; Sanscrit, mater; Greek, mater; Italian, madre; French, mere; Swedish, moder; Danish, the same, Dotter, moder; German, mutter; Russian, mater; Celtic, mathair.

IF YOU HAVE CATARRH send your name and address and we will immediately send you a Germicide Inhaler and medicine, with full directions for use, without a cent or PAY IN ADVANCE. After you have given it a fair trial and you find it a genuine remedy you can send us $3 to pay for same. Should it not prove successful in your case you need not pay a cent. Could anything be more fair? This grand remedy cures Catarrh in all its stages, free without delay. MEDICAL BUREAU CO., 450 YONGE STREET TORONTO, ONT.—97-17.

Children Cry for

$10,000 Sale of

BOOTS and SHOES

Until the end of February we will give tremendous bargains in BOOTS, SHOES, OVERSHOES, FELT BOOTS, SLIPPERS, and all winter goods.

JOHNSTON & SISSON.

Sign of the Mill Saw, SOUTH SIDE KENT STREET.

McLENNAN & CO., Table Mats, Tea Trays,

Mincing Knives, Carpet Sweepers, Hair Brushes, Skates, Skate Straps, Pocket Knives, Razors, Razor Straps, Axes, Cross Cut Saws.

SCRANTON COAL delivered at lowest prices.

McLENNAN & CO., Hardware, Coal and Iron Merchants.

F. VanCAMP BUILDERS' HARDWARE

Paints and Oils, Stoves and Ranges.

We have a limited number of Wood Cooks, which will be sold at cost, to make room for spring goods.

F. VANCAMP, 112 Kent-St. Lindsay.

MARRIAGE LICENSES FOR $2.00 at Porter's book store.—24-1.

DR. WASHINGTON, Throat and Lung Surgeon of Toronto, who has begun his monthly visits to Lindsay will visit here again at Benson House, March 22nd, until 5 p.m. only.

BEST CANADIAN COAL OIL, 10c. per imperial gallon, at F. VanCamp's, successor to Maywood and Colman.—31-3.

Mrs. McFaul, wife of Dr. McFaul, Toronto, is in town the guest of Mrs. Peter Mitchell. Mrs. McFaul gets a warm welcome all round from her old time Lindsay friends.

THE HYPODERMIC NEEDLE, as used by Mr. Cross, dentist, kills pain perfectly in tooth extractions, and the people appreciate it.—22-1.

MR. and Mrs. J. H. Mahood and family, of Port Hope, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, William-st. north, for a few days last week. Mr. Mahood leaves for Kingston in a few days, where he will reside in the future.

MISS BAIN, dress and mantle maker, having learned with Carter, Toronto, is prepared to do dress and mantle making in the latest styles. No. 78 Kent street.—24-1.

ADVANCED AUCTION SALE, at Maple Grove stock farm, Ops. Owing to the large quantity of goods and chattels to be sold at the above sale, darkness set in compelling an adjournment. Some 15 horses and colts remain to be sold. All the cattle, hay, roots, lumber and harness, four blood colts to stand, and six more to be sold among the number. Sale on Saturday, at 1 o'clock a.m. sharp.—24-1.

DAY AND NIGHT SCHOOLS.—Best methods taught in book-keeping, penmanship, shorthand, arithmetic etc., call or write for circular.—23-1.

Two daughters of Alma Tedema, the well-known painter of classical subjects, were contri- butors to the pages of the March Harper's, Miss Laurence Alma Tedema is the author of "Undine Tragedy," a romantic story told in a dialogue between mother and daughter. The two illustrations were drawn by Miss Alma Tedema.

Mrs. MITCHELL, the leading dress and milliner. All kinds of dress trimming at lowest prices. Latest styles in walking, visiting, evening costumes. She also has a good stock of millinery on hand. No. 78 Kent street.—24-1.

THE GREAT COLORED ORATOR, Rev. J. H. Hector, will preach morning and evening in the Cambridge-st. Methodist church, next Sunday, and address a temperance meeting at 4 o'clock. He will also deliver his thrilling lecture "The Story of My Life," on Monday evening following, March 5th, in the same church. There will be a silver collection at the temperance meeting, and an admission fee of two cents to the lecture Monday night.

DANIEL BITE, proprietor and publisher of the Hamburg, Ont., Independent, says: "I was suffering from dyspepsia and liver trouble; I took a few bottles of Sells' Vitamins and I am cured. I can heartily recommend it. If you leave the end open. Write your full address carefully.—10-17.

Pitcher's Castoria.

Council meeting on Monday night.

THE PAIR OYSTERS used by Mr. Neelands is the best for extracting teeth.—19-17.

Mr. W. G. Allaby, Norland, was in town on Wednesday, on business.

Ten Bury Lanes for 15 cents is at W. J. Morren's, 49 Kent Street, Lindsay.—24-17.

Senator Howland has been appointed Lieut. Governor of Prince Edward Island in the room of the late Lieut. Governor Carville, deceased.

APPRENTICE WANTED.—Wanted, a smart steady boy to learn the blacksmithing in a good shop. Apply to J. A. Ball, Dundasford.—27-3.

Misses Lottis and Addie, with their brother Mr. Edgar Best, and also their cousin, Mr. Albert, of Mt. Pleasant, relatives of Mrs. Wetburn, visited their uncle at Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wetburn, Sarsaparilla, for a few days this week.

A MARRIAGE LICENSE FOR $2.00, at Hughson & Co's jewelry store, 45 Kent street, Lindsay.—17-17.

On Monday while unloading grain at Hurley & Brady's store house, Mr. Joseph Greer of Fessalon had his collar bone broken besides sustaining other injuries. The accident occurred through the team Mr. Greer was taking fright at an engine that was shutting out; fortunately the team did not get away, otherwise greater damage might have been done.

Patrons of industry, and all others should feed the English Condition Powder, A. Higinbotham.—25-3.

NEXT MONDAY evening under the auspices of the E.L.C.E., Rev. I. W. Sweeney B. A. one of the missionaries of Japan, will deliver his celebrated lecture on "Japan and the Future," illustrated by numerous thumb sketches, etc. in the Queen-st. church. Don't miss this treat. A silver collection will be taken. Doors open at 7.30, lecture commences at 8 o'clock.

10 cents buys one imperial gallon of best Canadian coal oil, or 5 gallons for 50c, at F. VanCamp's, the new hardware store.—21-3.

Rev. W. J. Maxwell, pastor of the Elm-st. Methodist church Toronto, died on Tuesday morning of hemorrhage of the bowels. He had been ailing for the past six months consequently his death was not unexpected. As a preacher he was popular, having held during his ministerial career, some of the best appointments in the gift of the conference.

"I've tried all sorts of blood-purifiers," said an old lady to a "cutler," "and you can't persuade me that any other Sarsaparilla is as good as Ayer's." There's where she had him. She knew that Ayer's was the best, and so did he but it paid him better to sell a cheaper kind.—18-1.

FIRE.—On Sunday morning an alarm was sounded, when it was found that the Baptist church was on fire. Fortunately the fire was soon got under control, but not until considerable damage was done, principally in the school room, the Sunday school library being destroyed, as also one organ; another organ being also badly damaged. The loss is estimated to have been caused by the explosion of a rubber tube that conveyed the gas to a small gas stove. The loss is partially covered by insurance, the damage to the building being estimated at $75, which was promptly settled by the insurance company; but unfortunately there was none on the contents on which was the greater loss.

STAR HEATER.—The Star heater oil stove is very attractive and convenient for heating purposes. It will heat a room 15x20 to a temperature of 70 degrees in the coldest weather at a cost of cent per hour. For sale by W. G. Woods. Call and see it.—1900-41.

CAMBERIDGE ST. MERRIMACK CHURCH. The missionary services in this church last Sunday were very successful. The morning sermon by Mr. Young of Peterboro was an able exposition of the gospel principles, which place missionary obligations upon Christians; and that of the evening by Mr. Othman of Port Hope, was an eloquent review of the missionary work of the church, with its glorious achievements of soul salvation and social regeneration.—these two sermons were the complement of each other, and fitted together as though made for each other. The contributions of the congregation, we were informed by the pastor, were much in advance of last year.

AS WE INTEND making a radical change in our business, we have decided to make some very sweeping reductions in the prices of our goods. Now is your time to get the most for your money. Note the prices on a few lines—reduced gold watches, former price $35, now gets to $25; ladies' gold filled watches, former price $20, reduced to $14; gentlemen's B. F. chains reduced to $2.00; ladies' $2.50 B. F. chains reduced to $1.70. Great reductions in violins and accordions. Pocket books formerly sold for 70c reduced to 49c; caps and saners at your own price at HUGHSON & CO'S, 45 Kent-st., Lindsay, Ont.—25-17.

Mr. Samuel Rattle of the township of Somerville sold a carcass of dressed beef for the market one day this week that weighed 643 lbs. It is evident that Rattle is one of those men who pay attention to their stock. It pays to do so.

JUST CALL AND EXAMINE goods and prices at the new grocery—Smyth's book opposite the market-coach for farm and dairy produce.—18-17.

TRUCK BLUES.—The basket school held in the lodge room of Hackett True Blue Lodge No. 88, on Monday evening, February 27th, was a success both intellectually and financially, that fine lodge room being crowded to the doors. Great credit is due to Bros. McFadden, McCarty, Gowden, Courtney, Keddo, Johnson, Bunting, and a host of other members, instrumental in which the room was decorated. A number of brethren from the Falls were present, among whom were Bros. Taggart and Austin, W.M. and D.M. of Pension Falls lodge, shortly after 10 o'clock Bro. W. M. Scott, W.M., called the gathering to order, when Mr. Joe Brown was chosen as chairman. After a short address from the chairman, the following programme was rendered:—Part I, instrumental, Mr. S. Johnson; banjo and mouth organ duet, Messrs. W. Flavelle and C. Taylor; clarinet solo, Mr. Geo. McFadden; autoharp duet, Misses G. Fee and Martin; Mr. Fred Terry, then was called on to announce the baskets, which he did in a humorous and entertaining manner. After the baskets were all sold and lunch partaken of, they proceeded with the remainder of the programme: Part II.—Saxophone solo, Mr. Ira Ingles; song and dance, Mr. Geo. McFadden; banjo and mouth organ duet, Messrs. Flavelle and Taylor; autoharp duet, Messrs. Fee and Martin; song, Mr. W. Flavelle, with banjo accompaniment. It is needless to say that all on the programme did well, especially Mr. G. McFadden in his song and dance. Everybody seemed well pleased with the evening's proceedings, and the home to cherish as a memory the True Blue basket school. The receipts of the evening were upwards of $30. The proceedings were brought to a close by the beautifully singing "God Save the Queen."

HOW TO GET A "STRENGTH" PROMISE.—Send 25 "Sunlight" Soap wrappers (wrapped bearing the words "Why Does a Woman Look Old sooner than a Man.") to Lever Bros., Ltd., 45 South Street, London, E.C., and you will receive free of charge a picture frame from advertising and well worth framing. This is an easy way to decorate your home. The soap is the best in the market, and it will save you the cost of a hair comb. If you leave the end open. Write your full address carefully.—10-17.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. CURES OTTERRAL CURS. PURE BLOOD. CLEAR SKIN. HEADACHE. MENTAL ENERGY. LONG LIFE. STRONG NERVES.

M. Hammerly, a well-known business man of Hillsboro, Va., sends this testimony to the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla: "Several years ago, I was afflicted with a sore which led to a general debility, and I was unable to do any work. I tried many remedies, but in vain. I then tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and before I had finished the first bottle, I experienced a marked improvement, and the second bottle effected a complete cure."

THE SCENE of Lincoln J. Carter's new play "The Tornado," is laid in a Wisconsin village, on the fourth of July. A terrific storm soon becomes manifest, it turns out to be a veritable tornado, houses are torn asunder and blown away, great trees are taken up roots and all, and whirled into space, lightning flashes and thunder peals. The scene is one of awful intensity and truthfulness. The play follows the track of a great ocean steamer, the grand rigging scene with six sailors on the yardarm of a mast, furling sail, and collision of two steamships, a scene showing the open sea losing a lone man about on the waves which run as high as the stage will permit. Chicago has a most interesting performance at the most elaborately staged melodrama ever seen in Chicago by the entire press of that city. The Tornado will be at the Academy of Music to-night. Reserved seats for sale at Porter's bookstore. Prices 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents.—28-1.

PROF. D. M. BRISTOL'S EDUCATED HORSES.—Prof. Bristol's school of educated horses, the most prosperous amusement enterprise in the United States, will appear in the Academy of Music to-night, commencing their evening performance at 7 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, at the close of which the children will be invited to visit the points of the stage and take a free ride. These wonderful mind-endowed reason gifted horses, ponies and mules, 30 in number, accompanied by 25 men, will give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol's horses do this night after night, and send people away wondering more than ever why animal instinct ends and human reason begins. But the greatest puzzle of all, as well as the greatest favorite of the public, is the performance of the wonderful band and orchestra which will give in their own train of palace cars. It seems almost incredible that horses can, unaided give an interesting performance of two and a half hours' duration, but Prof. Bristol