Regular semi monthly meeting of the town council on Monday evening.—2

General, and Senators, and even the president himself, are becoming more alarmed as the armies of tramps approach the city of Washington. Trouble is feared and predicted, and what is more likely to occur, seeing that head of a column from Iowa, is both ready and willing, is bloodshed. It is talk, and prophetic. Talk is one of the principal evils of the American character. It is talk, and nothing but talk, in the Senate and in the House of Representatives, but it would be well to remember that free speech about bloodshed is a more dangerous commodity than free speech about the tariff.
