Bright Lad,

ren years of age, but who declines to give his to the public, makes this authorized,

ential statement to us:

That Little Kid.

When I see a little youngster Wrapped in long and swaddling clothes, Strapped inside his wicker carriage, Out of eight, except his nose, When he's left with dazzling sunlight Torturing each blinking lid,
Then with all my heart 1'm thankful That I'm not that little kid.

When I see him in the nursery, By the fire, warm and bright, Playing with his toys and trinkets, Laughing gay from morn till night-Keeping mother, aunt and sisters Running hither at his bid, Lest his tife should know a trouble. Would I were that little kid!

When I watch his helpless actions As he tries alone to walk, When I hear his wordless prattle, As he does his best to talk— When I think what tiresome studies He must have, as once we did, Really I am very thankful I am not that little kid.

But-when decked with bows and ribbons, On his "ma's" reception day, Held by scores of budding maidens, "Let me hold him!" "Kiss me darling!"
Pressed to scores of lips, and hid In their arms by clouds of kiss

FRANK DROWN SAYS DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS GIVE UNIVERSAL SATISFACTION - THE BEASON IS THEY NEVER FAIL TO

SHELBURNE, May 14—Frank Brown, the well-known druggist here, says: (In the past eighteen months, I have sold 119 dozen of Dodd's Kidney Pille. Considering the quantity I have sold, I have had an opportunity of accretaining whether the pills give satisfaction or not. I can say that during my fifteen years' experience in the drug business, I never sold a medicine that gives the universal satisfaction that Dodd's Kidney Pills do. I am satisfied any person suffering with kidney trouble only requires to give Dodd's Kidney Pills a fair trial, and he will be convinced of
