What is Your Life?

A little crib beside the bed, A little face above the spread, A little shoe upon the floor, A little frock behind the door, A little lad with dark brown hair, A little blue eyed face and fair, A little lane that leads to school,

A little pencil, slate and rule, A little winsome, blithsome maid, A little hand within his laid, That is where he got married-A little family gathering round,
A little turf heaped, tear dewed mound
That is where the child died—

A little cottage and acres four, A little old-time fashianed store, A little added to his soil, A little rest from hardest toil, A little silver in his hair, A little stool and an easy chair, A little night of earth-lit gloom, A little cortege to the temb-

Tyrolese Eyening Hymn.

That is what life is.

Come to the sunset tree! The day is past and gone; The woodman's axe lies free, The reaper's work is done. The twilight star to heaven, And the summer daw to flowers, And rest to us is given In the cool refreshing bowers. Come to the sunset tree, &c.

Sweet is the hour of rest,
Pleasant the wind's low sigh:
The gleaming of the west. And the turf whereon we lie. When the burden and the heat Of labour's task is o'er, And kindly voices greet,
The tired one at his door. Come to the sunset tree, &c.

Yes, tuneful is the sound That dwells in whispering boughs; Welcome the freshness round, And the gale that fans our brows. Then though the wind an altered tone Through the young foliage bear,
Though every flower of something gone,

A tinge may wear; Come to the sunset tree, &c.

Stop, Lady, Stop! Lean and lank, He's such a crank; My stars! I thank I'm not his wife; He'd make my life A scene of strife.

Stop, lady, stop! his liver is out of order. "He's just too nice for anything," his wife when he is well." Every wife's husd should, if sick, take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It puts the liver and kidneys in good working order, purifies the blood, cleanses the system from all impurities, from whatever cause arising, and tones up the functions generally. Baby Flora's Case Causes Much Talk and Surprise.

THE MOTHER MAKES A POSITIVE DECLARATION.

The following case, while it is in many ways wonderful and remarkable, does not furnish the quality of news that the gossip mongers and sensational readers The event is recorded for the special benefit of mothers who have babies to care for. Baby Flora -- is now six months old and belongs to a well-to-do family universally respected in the gay capital. For many weeks the child was not ex-pacted to live; medicine seemed to agravate the case, and made the little one of Kinmount, dispensed the quarterly sacrament in No. 6 two weeks ago.

Although it was a very wet Sabbath it didn't stop our good pastor coming from to do with her sickness; the lady who made this suggestion at the same time recommended a trial of Lactated Food, minister, preached an excellent sermon on Wednesday evening, May 30.

We purpose holding a tea party in aid of Mr. Stuart, presbyterian minister, on or about the 20th of June, when a grand time is expected.

Our pastor, Mr. Green, gave us an able sermon last Sabbath. Next Sabbath is expected to be his last with us. Mr. Green devotes his time thoroughly to the service of the Lord.

Miss Ina Scott, principal of No. 6 school, purposes having a day-school picnic after holidays to entertain the children. A good programme is being the state of the family.

Which she had used herself with grand results for her babies.

A change in baby Flora's diet was immediately made, and in a few days a happy change was observed. The eyes became brighter, the weak stomach could retain and digest some nourishment, and sweet sleep seemed to give new strength. All medianes were discarded, and the Lactated Food used regularly. In five weeks' time baby Flora was a happy, hearty child, bright and cheerful, and a joy to every member of the family.

To-day, Flora's mother declares positwhich she had used herself with grand praises, and recommends it to all her friends who have babies. Mothers who have bables.

Mothers who have week, frail and sickly babes, should derive comfort and hope after reading of little Flora's case.

You may smile at the absurd question, we ask it in all seriousness. Would you tell the children to keep away from it or to bite on it moderately? Would you say it was one of God's good creatures, and that it was good for some complaints, and therefore the weed ought to be permitted to grow and spread, while your own children were in constant peril? No. Like any sensible and just father, you tear that weed out and burn it up, root and branch. That would be suppression or prohibition, whichever term you please to apply to it.

Some Plain Talk. Captain John Robinson of South Cayuga, Ont., was at one time connected with the patrons of industry. Having left the order, the captain has been telling some things in a public speech which he recently delivered. The captain stated as follows:—"I am opposed to the pat-rons, they are a fraud from beginning to end. It is simply a money making con-cern. I have here letters to show the secret inside workings of the patrons, and the wire-pulling going on by the leaders of the order. The profits derived from the sale of charters, rituals, etc., are enormous. As organizer I received $10 for each lodge, making at the rate of $240 a menth. The 10cts. a menth fee collecta month. The losts a month fee collected from each member is just so much fodder to feed the "fellows at the top."

To-day, Flora's mother declares positively that Lactated Food saved her baby's life; she is enthusiastic in its praises, and recommands it to all the men who are going around the country fiercely denouncing everybody who is receiving a dollar from the public. The captain lets out a secret, and yet not a secret, for does anybody suppose for a moment that Mr. Mallory and Mr. Gurry Lactated Food certainly "Saves Babies' Lives."—4s-1.
