

A JULY ANNIVERSARY.

The 12th in Lindsay to be royally celebrated at # Gough - Brothers' - Big - Store.

Gough Bros. are here sure as the anniversary comes around. Here to welcome the brethren to the most hospitable store in the county. Its doors swing to and fro to pass in and out all men of all creeds. Goughs' know no distinction in customers. Many of their best buyers are those who wear the Orange and carry the banner of the Prince.

In order that the brethren shall present a fine appearance on the day, and look a credit to themselves, the County and the Order, Gough Bros. suggest a visit to their store. Right at hand everything needed to equip the outer man.

Black Suits, Orange and Blue Ties, Single Garments in Black, Silk Hats, White Shirts, Belts and Sashes,

White Vests and Mens' furnishings of all kinds. All bought specially for this anniversary.

Goughs' hope to see a successful celebration, and that the thousands of good citizens in the ranks will enjoy themselves.

Don't forget that we mean business. We want to sell to you. We have the goods. Exactly what is needed. Look in and let us show our lines.

EXAMINATIONS for teachers certificates are being held this week in the collegiate institute, Dr. A. Purlow of the high school, Port Hope, is one of the examiners.

CHURCH PARADE.—On Sunday afternoon July 1st the organmen, true blues, prentice boys and orange boys formed in procession and headed by the citizens band proceeded to St. Pauls church where an excellent sermon appropriate to the day was preached by Rev. Mr. Smith.

THE CHURCH.—Rev. S. J. Shorey who succeeds Rev. Mr. Campbell in the pastorate of the Cambridge street Methodist church, commenced his pastoral duties by preaching two excellent sermons to his new congregation on Sunday last. Rev. Mr. Shorey is president of the Bay of Quinte conference. Rev. J. W. Totten who has been transferred from Cananago to the charge of the Queen street Methodist church, also preached to the congregation in his new parsonage. Mr. Johnston returned last week from attending the general assembly of the Presbyterian church at St. John, N. B., and conducted the services on Monday and evening in St. Andrew's church.

A HANDSOME BANNER.—We have just had the pleasure of inspecting an extra handsome banner, manufactured for L. O. L. No. 646, Emily, by our townsman W. A. Goodwin. It is composed of double silk panelled in orange and scarlet, a fine equestrian portrait of King William III., with the immortal words "no surrender," our God, our Queen, our country, on gold ribbons around his majesty, with the holy bible in the palm, and rose, thistle and shamrock entwined. The portrait of the Queen copied from the London Graphic, does justice to the designer, who has not omitted a beautiful floral design by way of frame for her majesty, in which the maple leaf and orange lily gracefully are depicted, the Canadian emblem, the beaver, supporting the mottoes Angliæ, overtona and the Boyne, with the ever memorable date 1800 beneath. We congratulate the lodge on securing such a handsome banner.

Victim of an Electric Storm.

UNDESIRABLE, July 3.—Iracl Onitchey, stone-mason, was working under a barn at Udon on Monday when he was killed by lightning. A son of the owner of the barn, A. S. Webster, was also struck, but will recover.

Shooting Affray at Port Hope.

PORT HOPE, July 3.—James Oakton of Osborny and James H. Crumble of Port Hope having been drinking together yesterday and last night quarrelled. Crumble stabbed Oakton in the leg, severing an artery. It is difficult to say how his wound will result. Crumble is in custody.

STILL AT THE FRONT

Great crowds visit us every week. don't you join them? Perhaps you discount our ability to do as cheap as we say. The idea that goods in WATCHES, CLOCKS, JEWELRY, SPECTACLES, SILVERWARE, etc., being sold at such a small above cost of manufacture is preposterous to some people. However unusual it may seem (to people) the certainty of saving (to bringing buyers in great numbers to our store. Ready money is the factor in our purchases for cash and the result is bargains as you find in our Jewellery. Bear in mind one thing—everything of good quality as represented. We have advantages in buying goods of our imitators have yet to learn. means advantage in selling to the benefit of our customers. Go to
