pecial to The Warder. THE Christmas tree and entertainment in behalf of the methodist Sunday school was a good success in every way. The programme was good and well carried out. The "fan drill" by eight little girls, trained by Mr. Carmiobael was excellent. The fancy ball swinging by Miss Mo-Eachern and instrumental music by Miss M. Campbell were highly appreciated.

The tree was very handsomely dressed with many valuable presents. The teachers remembered their scholars by placing on the tree suitable gifts. Much credit is also due Miss Lizzie Jackson, as organist, who did her work faithfully and well. A most happy and enjoyable even-ing was spent by all.
