A certain doctor of this town who was called to see a patient, after examining her carefully said to the mother, "Well, Missus, I don't know much about this disease, but you just throw her into fits, and I'm death on fits." Now, we claim no relationship whatever to that doctor, but we would say that we would like every person who happens to be troubled with weakness of any kind, falling fits, epilepsy, etc, to try a bottle of HIGINBOTHAM'S EPILEPSY CURE, and if you come back and say it did not help you your money will be cheerfully retunded.
