For Rosedale and Somerville.

[The circumstances connected with the following are entirely unknown to us; but as there is no herm in them, and as a type of a class of poetry, the lines are inserted. They certainly will afford amusement and will do no harm. The publication of these verses however, must not be taken as a precedent for others. Our rates for such are, as a rule, 10c. per line.—Ed. Warder.]

My name it is young Wilson,

The lad you all know well; I made my home in Somerville, Near a place called Rosedale.

In Somerville I made my home, And I had friends beside;

But now they say I am in jail,
And I guess, their friendship's died.

They accuse me of a scandal.

That's where they're in the wrong;
For I can speak quite plain, and say
The like I've never done.

So then I left old Somerville,
And went to new London town.
The talk was to kill a man up there,

For to start a burying ground.

So I thought I'd better move on again;
Where I am I shall not tell.
The people may talk and puff away,
But Will Wilson is not in jail.

Greenway proposes to Stand Firmly by National Schools.

Winnipeg, April 3.—Those who had the idea that because Premier Greenway delayed before making answer to the remedial order, he was weakening, will probably find themselves mistaken. The Tribune, which speaks with authority, being the organ of Mr. Greenway's govern-being the organ of Mr. Greenway's government, says to-night:

"There is not the slightest truth in the report of a division in the Local Cabinet on the school question. Each member is resolute in his determination to stand by the National schools, no matter what the issue may be. To yield any suggestions as to the appointment of a commission, or making a compromise, would, it is considered, be perfectly suicidal, and would never be approved by the public.

"The government fully recognize that it has a mandate from the people of Manitoba to stand by the public schools system, and there is no more intention of departing from that mandate than there is of handing over the government of the province ing over the government of the province to the roman catholics.

"Manitoba counts upon the hearty support of Ontario in the struggle, as Ontario must recognize that if the clergy of Quebec are allowed to force separate schools on Manitoba that a blow will be struck at equal rights in Canada from which the country will never recover. It is felt by our government that the rightthinking people of Canada will never permit the French people of Quebec to have their way in this case and trample provincial rights under their feet.

"While the government will take the very best advice it can obtain in the case and give due weight to all considerations, atill there will be no weakening, and when still there will be no weakening, and when the time comes it will be seen that the government will stand resolutely by the national schools."

NATIONAL SCHOOLS MUST STAND. Editorially the Tribune calls on the liberals in Ontario to pronounce on the school question, and stand by national schools. It warns them that they are Rathbun Co. The day after meeting of council two loads had been unloaded without the knowledge of Mr. Touchbourn or he (the knowledge o
