Mr. W. J. Judge left last week to visit his parents at Barrie, with the hope that change of air and scene will hasten his final recovery. The journey was fatiguing as he did not feel so well at its termination as he did before he started. We hope that he will soon regain his wonted health and strength.

A few days ago at a shooting party in the North of Scotland a lady appeared clad in the orthodox sporting outfit; hitherto monopolized by the sterner sex, says the St. James Budget. Although she expended a considerable number of cartridges she did not succeed in bringing down a single bird. The gamekeeper, after the return of the party, expressed himself as follows regarding the lady's performance: "She split the gentlemen 'at that end." She was the same class, she smoked, drank a nip of whisky, and she was a bit of a snob, but in his own shooting she could hit a barn door at ten yards, and she never once said 'thank ye' to me. It may be that her kind comes about I'll throw no more j's."

At Home.—A pleasant evening was spent at the Methodist parsonage, Cambridge street, being an at home, when Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Shorey welcomed their many friends on the occasion of taking possession of the parsonage after the extensive improvements that have been made in it. The house was literally crowded by the number of people who called to pay their respects to Mr. and Mrs. Shorey. The visitors were not confined to Mr. Shorey's own church as every denomination in town was represented.

Rev. J. W. McLELLAN, the new pastor of St. Andrew's church preached his inaugural sermon in St. Andrew's church on Sabbath morning to a large congregation. In the evening a large congregation was present for the first time to the establishment of the new minister who was preaching for the first time to a congregation who had given him a call without ever hearing him preach. It is needless to say the congregation of St. Andrew's church are not disappointed in the pastor they have chosen.

The Grand Old.—This play received its first production last evening and is unquestionably the brightest comedy we have seen for years. The leading role as played by Mr. Lindsay, is utterly different from anything expected as his name is broad comedy in his own right. To the astonishment of the audience there appeared a rejuvenated light comedian of the Charles Matthews' type who gabbled away with a persistency and a volubility that was simply immense. To hide a folly Mr. Lindsay, as a newly married man who has flirted, lied, equivocated and tergiversated with the utmost sang froid, falls into pitfalls, extricates himself and then repeats his experience, whilst the audience marvels and laugh at one to whom Annette and Sapphira are strangers. The end of the second act is certainly the most original climax of a comedy, as tableaux are sustained some minutes and at each variation the audience cheered to the echo. Mr. Lee was also excellent as the emcee. Headed, tubulous son-in-law while Louisa Beck as Mr. Lindsay's much dreaded mother-in-law contributed materially to the success. Miss Baker as the circus girl was piquant, saucy and amusing. The play was a repetition. To-night Mortimer Murdoch's "Home of Gold" is produced. This is a comic production combines tragedy and comedy of the lightest order and in it Miss Adelaide Scott appears as the wretched Belleville intelligence. This company appear in the Academy of Music the three days of the fair, Sept. 25th, 26th and 27th.

Mr. J. W. Garvin, B.A., X.I.P.S. district manager for Peterborough and surrounding counties for the North American Life Assurance Co., gave THE WARDER office a pleasant call yesterday morning.

FRAS.—On Friday afternoon of last week, an alarm of fire was sounded. From the volume of smoke that was ascending in the northern part of the town it was feared that an extensive fire was in progress. Fortunately such was not the case, as it was the refuse of saw-dust etc., the accumulation of years from the Dominion Bank mills, that had by some means unknown caught fire. From the peculiar nature of the material in which the fire was working it took some three or four hours before the firemen got it extinguished. Shortly after two o'clock yesterday morning another alarm was sounded, when it was found that a stable belonging to A. Menzies in the east ward was on fire. Owing to the fire having obtained considerable headway before the alarm was sounded, all hope of saving the building was lost on the arrival of the firemen. We had not learned the extent of the loss or if there was any insurance.

STEAMER BURNED.—About six o'clock on Sunday morning, the well-known excursion steamer Columbian was burned to the waters edge at Bobcaygeon, where she was to be laid up for the winter, the excursion season being over. The boat was built in Lindsay three years ago at a cost of $13,000, no expense being spared in her construction and fittings. There is an insurance of $6000 in the Mercantile Fire, and $3000 in the Liverpool, London and Globe companies. Universal sympathy is felt for Dr. McCamus, the owner, in his loss.

WEDDING BELLS.—On Wednesday, September 11th, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John McKinnon, Salem, Mariposa, was the scene of a happy event, it being the marriage of their daughter, Miss Catharine, to Mr. James Thorburn of the same place. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large gathering of invited friends by the Rev. Mr. McLeod, B. A. of Sonby, in his usual happy style. The bride was supported through the ceremony by her sister, Miss Euphemia McKinnon, while the groom was in like manner supported by his brother, Mr. Malcolm Thorburn. The bride and bridesmaid were tastefully dressed in cream cashmere and looked very charmingly. The bride was the recipient of many useful and costly presents. THE WARDER wishes Mr. and Mrs. Thorburn a long and prosperous journey through life.

Geo. M. HARRISON OF LINDSAY HAS A STRONG CALL. We take the following from the Toronto Evening News of Wednesday, Sept. 18th. THE WARDER does not know whether it is all true or not. In the meantime Geo. M. is out of town.—Lindsay, Ont., Sept. 17.—There was a ripple of excitement in town this morning when it became known that Geo. M. Harrison, the dashing second cornet player in the citizen's band, had found it necessary to suddenly slip the reins on a pair in the river, above the town. He did not even wait to bid his most intimate friends adieu, and there were many young ladies who received the news in sorrow and tears. He was a general favorite, particularly with the fair sex. From what can be learned a telegram was received early this morning by Mr. Harrison, advising him of the fact that an officer would arrive from Cornwall on the 2.30 train and that he had better govern himself accordingly. That he had no time to lose in doing subsequent events a single moment. It is said he has a wife and family in Cornwall, and it was on a charge of neglecting to support them that he was wanted. It is evident his friends in Cornwall gave him the "tip" that enabled him to escape.
