THE NEWSPAPER GETS LEFT.—A country newspaper publisher sizes up the "span of life" as follows: "A child is born, the doctor in attendance gets a $10 fee; the editor notes it and gets 5c; the printer publishes the minister gets $5, and the editor writes it up and gets 5c; it marries and the minister gets another $10; the editor gets a piece of cake or 50c. In the course of time it dies; the doctor gets from $5 to $100 and the minister perhaps gets another $5; the editor writes $25 to $50, the editor prints a notice of death and an obituary two columns long, and a set of resolutions of some lodge or organization to which the deceased belonged, and receives 5000 and then has the privilege of taking a free card of thanks and a lot of poetry besides."

Avoid all the unnecessary expense attached to diphtheria by using "Pills for Diphtheria," which keeps the system proof against contagion.—15-1v.

She's a beauty worth inspecting, She's so fair; But the fashion she's affecting Makes men all so desirous of On the costume we're divided; I have views that are decided, But my views I find decided, And despair.

All the cause of this division, I may say, Is what calls out men's derision—Bloomers gay. Their division makes me trouble, For it makes division double, And exploits the love god's bubble In a day.

HONEST HELP.—Thousands of men are suffering because they lack the courage to make known their early errors and to endeavor to remedy them. Nervous weakness, loss of manhood and the many ills due to early indiscretions, excesses or overwork can be quickly, successfully and permanently cured, if you will only let the right people know what ails you. Write to me in confidence and I will tell you, free of charge, how to get cured. I have nothing to sell, but am desirous of honestly helping you. Perfect secrecy assured. Describe your case and address with stamp.—L. A. Edwards, P. O. Box 55 Jarvis, Ont.

RETURNED.—Mr. David Campbell, who went over a short time ago to Warren, Ohio, has returned. From what Mr. Campbell saw and heard while there he is satisfied that Canada is preferable to live in.

A lover loves peary teeth and sweet breath Odoroma secures both.—15-20.

LOW PRICES.—From a reliable source we learn that in Iowa potatoes are a drag on the market, at 10 cents per bushel, and all that can be got for oats is 5 cents a bushel. What a fine prospect for the farmers of Ontario to have free exchange of the products of each country.

AN EPWORTH LEAGUE convention for the Lindsay district was held at Omenas on Tuesday last, Rev. N. Hill, pastor of the church where the convention was held presided. He conducted the meeting in his own genial and happy manner and proved a very efficient chairman. There were a good number of delegates and friends of the cause in attendance. Rev. J. W. Totten and Miss B. Totten were present representing the Queen St. Lindsay branch. Mr. W. B. Moore and Miss Elna Moore were present from Lindsay. Rev. J. W. Totten gave an address on "The Epworth League as an evangelistic agency." Excellent addresses were given by Rev. C. H. Coon, A. O. Orwin, the general secretary and others. It is expected that these conventions will be held annually. A collection is expected each year from each league to meet the expenses of the general office. Rev. J. W. Totten is treasurer for the district.

WHY HAS ODOROMA become so popular? Because you cannot use it, even for a few days, without experiencing the hygienic effect upon the teeth, the gums and also upon the breath.—15-20.

THE LINDSAY and Peterboro districts of the Temperance and General Life Assurance company have been placed under the general agency of Mr. J. H. Fife, with head offices at Peterboro. Mr. Fife will therefore remove to Peterboro at once in order to take charge of the office. Mr. H. P. Lindsay, of Peterboro, has been appointed a special agent for the company in the united districts. While the many friends of Mr. Fife will regret to learn of his removal from Lindsay they will be pleased to note his advancement in the company.

A Chicago bicyclist has ridden five miles in less than ten minutes. This sustains the reputation of a city which would rather be fast than right.—Cleveland News Herald.

In the Queen St. Methodist church this Friday evening, Nov. 8th, there will be a meeting of the gospel temperance society that has lately been organized, shortly after Mr. Mosher was attacked and followed his little son. Shortly after the death of the head of the family Catherine, familiarly known as Kate, who was a school teacher for some years, was attacked and on Wednesday of last week yielded up her life to the grim monster. Dr. Hay of Toronto, a personal friend, came from the city and attended Miss Mosher through her illness but all was of no avail, as death also claimed her for a victim. The WARDER extends the sympathy to Mrs. Mosher and family in their trouble.

Mrs. Geo. Rogers, of Montreal, is at present the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jos. Hewson, Lindsay street. Mr. Rogers is out north with the Hewson-Doane hunting party.

GUNPOWDER PLOT.—Young Hearts of Oak life and drum band commemorated the two hundred and nineteenth anniversary of the gunpowder plot by holding an at home in the orange hall on Tuesday evening last, Nov. 5th. Notwithstanding the short notice given that large and beautiful hall was crowded to the doors, a large number not being able to gain admittance. At precisely 8 o'clock Mr. Harry Bell, acting on behalf of the band, called the gathering together, when Mr. J. A. McWilliam, W. M. L.O.L. No. 557, was called to the chair, which he filled in his usual pleasant manner. The following programme was then presented:—Chairman's address; opening song, the Maple Leaf forever; quick step by band; Master Pepper song; Mr. J. Petty, song, (encore); Miss McOrimmon, recitation; Miss Huzhan song; Mr. Petty, reading; Master Tom Brown, clarinet solo, (encore); Mr. J. Smith, song, (encore); F. Petty, reading; Master Pepper, song; Miss G. Lunkey, recitation; Miss Shields, song; Miss N. Lunkey, recitation; Mrs. Mills, song; Miss Hooper, recitation, (encore); Master T. Brown, clarinet solo; Miss Shields, recitation. Refreshments were then served after which Mr. J. Ferris favored the audience with a musical organ solo, and was encored. Mr. J. Brown then moved a vote of thanks to all who had taken part in the programme, which was carried by a standing vote. A very pleasant and profitable evening was then brought to a close by the band playing God save the Queen, and the large crowd wended their way home wondering when the next at home under the same auspices would be held. Miss Nellie Bell presided at the organ. Revs. Messrs. Marsh and McMillan were unable to attend through unexpected engagements, and Dr. White was unable to address the large audience on account of contracting a severe cold. The committee in charge wish to return thanks to all who took part in the programme. The collection taken at the door amounted to the sum of $11.50.

cannot be made out of horses that are out of condition. Merely to feed plenty of oats is not enough. A horse gets run down the same as a man and needs a general toning up.

Dick's Blood Purifier is a scientific preparation in the form of a powder. It purifies the blood, strengthens the digestion, turns a rough coat into a smooth and glossy one and puts the animal "in condition." He then has "good life" and feels like holding up his head and lifting his feet.

MILCH COWS are greatly benefited by it. The whole system is toned up. The digestive organs being strengthened, more nutriment is drawn from the food and the flow of milk increased. Dick's Blood Purifier will pay for itself ten times over. For sale by druggists, at general stores or sent post paid on receipt of 50 cts. Dick & Co., P. O. Box 483, Montreal.
