A PIONEER GONE —Another one of those eld residents of Victoria county, one of its earliest settlers, has gone in the death of Mr. Hugh Uniter of Ope. Like many of Victoria county's successful pioneers Mr. Coulter was an Irishmen, who emigrated from Donegal, Ireland, in 1850 coming to this country and living in Manvers until a few years ago when he came to Ope where he has resided up to the time of ais death with his son, Samuel. Mr. Coulter attained to the healthy and happy age of 91 years. Eleven obliders, six boys and five girls, of whom three girls are dead, composed his family along with his wife, who is still living and whom we trust shall see many years more of prosperity and health.

Mrs. Howson's recitals are too well known and a preciated in town now to require any comment here. Considering the class of the music which will be presented and the praise-worthy object in view a large audience should be in attendance next Thursday.

THE BAND.—In spite of the difficulties which have been surrounding the Citizens' band they have been practising steadily away. Several new members have been put into harness and by good coaching they will take a place in the band by spring. The band is one of the most laudab's institutions in town and as in the past, so, no doubt, in the future it will be a credit to the town.

A NEW ONE —A writer says, "e" is the most unfortunate letter in the alphabet, because it is never in each, never out of debt and never out of danger. The writer forgets the aforesaid letter is never in war, but always in peace. It is the beginning of existence, the commencement of eace and the end of trouble, Without it there would be no bread, oake, pie, meat or water, no life, no men: oake, ple. meat or water, no life, no men; then wha!?

OAUTION —A young girl in Hamilton has just died from the eff-ots of being hit by a snow-ball. This is not the first accident of the kind which has happened in Ontario this winter and the local papers are all throwing out warnings to the boys to step the evil practice. While the boys of our town are not offenders in this respect it would not be injudicious to throw out a caution, asking them dicious to throw out a cautien, asking them to refrain from switt throwing or fiving iced mow-balls. There is a saying "that by swill be boys" but boys have their own opinions and know when and where to practise moderation. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Up What the other day two young people applied for a school, one asking $160, the other $99. The latter received the place, although the board should have taken both. Yet many school teachers complain of the poor sclaries they receive. No doubt they have reason to complain, for in many places wretchedly poor sclaries are paid, but who have they to blame but themselves. As in any other business, so in the teaching profession if the applicants keep bidding lower and lower against each other they cannot expect, and most certainly shall not receive proper scharies. Let teachers unite in the common cause and it shall come.

Whitby people are enjoying some pleasant reading these days, seeing that their local papers have "got their backs up." Here is one of the spate: "The dying locking creature who runs that paper must needs vent his dyspepsia on somebody, but instead of stracking abuses he selects the mayor, reeve, town solicitors, the publishers of this paper, and others, and not only pitches into them in the most vile way possible, but also opens his columns to the amonymous attacks of every other dirty skn k in town who wishes to stab them in the dark."
