Day Clearing Sale at-WARNER & CO'S

Owing to the severe weather, snow storms, blockades and bad roads, we postponed our annual midwinter sale which usually commences First of February, until now, in order to give our triends and patrons from the country an equal chance with our townspecple.

WE COMMENCE ON WEDNESDAY, 26th FEB., and continue for 30 DAYS ONLY, a mammoth Clearing Sale, during which our entire stock will be offered at such startling reductions as to convince any sensible purchaser that we are genuine truth advertisers, and follow our advertisements to the letter in every case. In addition to our regular stock we have received during February over $10.000 OF NEW SPRING GOODS consisting of New Dress Goods, New Prints, Cottons, Shirtings, Flannelettes, Tweeds, Furnishings, etc., all of which go in at clearing prices, but for 30 days only.

This affords an excellent opportunity for every family in the district to obtain their Spring supplies at a great reduction on regular prices.

REMEMBER THE PLACE, WARNER & CO'S. REMEMBER THE DATE, FEB. 26, FOR 30 DAYS ONLY.

REMEMBER THE FACT. WARNER & CO'S $25,000 STOCK, TOGETHER WITH $10,000 NEW SPRING GOODS; MAKING $35,000 IN ALL. AT SLAUGHTER PRICES FOR 30 DAYS.

Reeve Key remarked that no estimate of the loss anstained was attached, as asked for at the last meeting.

Councillor Curtin said there was considerable dissatisfaction among the firemen in regard to the fines levied for non-attendance at fires, it being claimed that the alarm was not properly sounded. He, Mr. Curtin, thought the captain should bring in a report giving the names of the men absent, and the fines should go into the town treasury instead of being distributed among the members. The men should also be paid by the town treasurer and not by the captain of the brigade.

A motion was passed directing the treasurer to open a separate account for the Home to date from 1st January.
