Midland district papers are saying Lindsay has an excellent ten year old currier. This evidently applies to Master Ross Harstone, who is a currier from the word go. The eighth regiment Princess Louise Hussars of King's county, New Brunswick have volunteered to accept service under the British government on the expedition up the Nile. New Brunswick again leads the Dominion in pluck and loyalty. The Province does not shout about its backbone and its devotion to the Empire. Where occasion arises, however, everybody knows quite soon that its backbone is extra stiff and its loyalty of the right kind. The Imperial government while recognizing the devotion of New Brunswick, has decided to send to the enough men at present who are equipped and ready to carry on the war.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—At the hour of going to press a terrible accident occurred on Kent St. It seems that several men under the superintendence of Lindsay's well-known contractor, Wm. White, were taking a safe up to Magwood's office. When about the top of the stairs the moving tackle gave way, letting the safe roll down stairs, crushing Mr. White beneath it. The unfortunate man was removed to his home, Cambridge street, where several doctors, at the time of writing, are in attendance.
