LAXTON. To the Editor of The Warder.

DEAR SIR, -I am not a good hand at writing a letter but I wish to let the tories in other sections of this riding know of the methods put to use by Mr. R. J. McLaughlin while in this section. He appeared anxious to talk away beyond us and spoke for a long while of the inconsistency of Sam Hughes in not supporting Laurier's "six months' hoist." Well, we have always tried to read and think for ourselves, and talk over public matters that we think concern us wheneyer we have spare time, and I, for one, cannot see that you could take any other course than the one you followed. But, sir, now that I have got this far in my letter I almost think it is not necessary to send it for I begin to think that the people in other sections will see through Mr. McLaughlin as easily as we did and many others will tell him as Mr. Battie did that he and his three boys and lots of others that he knows are going to vote for Sam Hughes. Yours etc.

Roads are in fine condition, and everything here in readiness to commence the election campaign, in fact I may say it has already been commenced, McLaughlin having run the gauntlet through this narrow path and across Rosedale bridge, pulling up in Somerville township not much the worse for his adventure. He with his chief lieutenant pushed on to Baddow, where he says he can expect to do something by holding meetings. We understand he returned by way of Fenelon Falls, holding a meeting in that village on Saturday evening, where he met, by prearrangement, Mr. Delamere, and we have not learned yet whether that gentleman

In winter when Canadians spend a large portion of their time indoors and cannot have the same variety of fresh food as in summer and fall, indigestion and dyspepsia afflict a majority. "If anybody will tell me that dyspepsia in its advanced stages is perfectly curable," said a Toronto merchant, "I will take his word. Personally I run no risks. As soon as I feel a sense of weight in the stomach, after a meal, I know that my blood is sluggish in circulation. One thing is sure, however, that he will find the boys steady and staunch to the old conservative cause and not just ready to have the wool pulled over their eyes by Mr. McLaughlin or any of his emissaries. We have not heard of our friend, Major Sam Hughes, having any intention of holding meetings in this visinity. If his work in other parts does not permit him to do so he may rest assured that his cause (the old conserva-tive) will be willingly and ably defended against all comers.

From our regular special correspondent THE orange social given by the S. Army on Friday evening, May 1st, was a very successful entertainment, a number of members from outside corps came in on the afternoon train to participate.

On Monday of last week, Howry's mill commenced its season's work, and ran all night on Tuesday for the first time this spring. Although not yet in full swing, the yard already presents a very busy appearance, and one of the company's alligators, the "Saginaw" is already plying back and forwards through our waters.

IT IS ABSURD,

It is absurd to try to cure rheumatism with sarsaparillias, and the ordinary advertised compounds which are recommended for the cure of almost every disease to which the human flesh is heir. The disease, as all know, is caused by an acid poison in the blood, and can only be quickly and effectually removed by the use of an internal remedy, which will neutralize it, and thus destroy its irritating properties. The ingredients of South American Rheumatic Cure have not been long known, but are recommended by ome of the latest English medical works. as being to rheumatism what quinine is to ague, and absolute specific. The first dose of the remedy gives perfect relief, and it at once begins the chemical process of neutralizing the soid of the blood, It usually cures in one to three days. Sold by P. BALSAM LAKE.

To the Edifor of The Warder. Sam. Hughes,-Dear Sir,-I have never met you on any of your trips through here and to tell you the truth I never had any great wish to, for the opinion I had formed of you was gained by reading the "Lindsay Post," which I have taken ever since I moved in here; but I intend going to Lindsay next Saturday or the one following and I shall call on you. You may think it strange that I; a life long grit, should address you in this way, and more so when I tell you that you are going to get my vote on the 23rd of June. I am not going to promise my influence or any such nonsense for I think every man's vote, that is worth having, has sense enough to know what to do without being told; Mr. McLaughlin himself is the man whom I believe can make you more votes than any other, and if he continues the lines he is running on you need not come out at all to hold meetings. I do not take THE WARDER but I wish you would put me on your list and I will settle with you next Saturday. I have seen Mr. Staples' WARDER several times this winter and I find that what is really published there is not what the Post makes out. It seems to take out a piece here and there, wherever it suits best.—without giving what was before and after. It is for the reason that Mr. McLaughlin

It is for the reason that Mr. McLaughlin condemns, that I approve of you.

You may put this in The Warder if you wish and sign my name to it as well, and the first time I get a chance I am going to tell Mr. McLaughlin that, though I knew his people well and thought well of them, still I can't give him my vote.

Yours truly,

Letters come day by day telling us that this person has been cured of dyspepsia, that person of Bad Blood, and another of Headache, still another of Biliousness, and yet others of various complaints of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels or Blood, all through the intelligent use of Burdock Blood Bitters.

It is the voice of the people recognizing the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters cures all diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels and Blood. Mr. T. G. Ludlow, 334 Colborne Street, Brantford, Ont., says: During seven years prior to 1886, my wife was sick all the time with violent headaches. Her head was so hot that it felt like burning up. She was weak, run down, and so feeble that she could hardly do anything, and so nervous that the least noise startled her. Night or day she could not rest and life was a misery to her. I tried all kinds of medicines and treatment for her but she steadily grew worse until I bought six bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters from C. Stork & Son, of Brampton, Ont., for which I paid $5.00, and it was the best investment I ever made in my life. Mrs. Ludlow took four out of the six bottlesthere was no need of the other two, for those four bottles made her a strong, healthy woman, and removed every ailment from which she had suffered, and she enjoyed the most vigorous health. That five dollars saved me lots of money in medicine and attendance thereafter, and better than that it made home a comfort to me.

And sweetly doth its growing charms A tender mellowness impart. The tendrils of the heart entwine Each rafter, post and sill, The feelings of unrest disarm And eat into the walls until The wind that whistles thro' the flaws Its music from a heart string draws. Oh rapture! is there anywhere A seat more fitting thy delight Than where a sister's soul so sweet Doth temper manly souls in right.

This was his last effort at verse making. It breathes a spirit of loyalty to home that seems all the more beautiful seeing that the ties were so soon to be so rudely broken. The floral offerings were significant. Under the circumstances, they eloquently declared the moral and relagious worth of his character. They showed that he had won the confidence of his teachers and fellow students in the collegiate institute, and what was still better, of the members of the Epworth league and bible class, with and for whom he so faithfully labored. In this feature enshrine him in enduring memory. Brief, but bright was Manfred's career on
