Major Hughes' Meetings.

DALRYMPLE on Wednesday night was remarkably well attended, and the good and true men and women of the beautiful district turned out in large numbers. Mr. J. J. Irwin occupied the chair and proved a capable officer. Several questions put by the audience were answered satisfactorily by Mr. Hughes. Two prominent conservatives there, one an Orangeman, the other a P.P.A., found fault with Mr. Hughes for voting against the government. Their views are that he should have stood straight with his friends, seeing the school issue is only a grudge, and that if the question must be settled it were better settled by a conservative than a reform government.

BOLSOVER on Thursday night was a grand turnout. It was said to be the largest political gathering ever seen at that neat little village. Mr. Steele filled the chair with much ability. Mr. McKee and Mr. Hughes addressed the audience. The election came from miles around. Several ladies who wished to attend could not enter the large building the crowd was so great.

GLENARM on Friday night was a rousing meeting, certainly the largest political one in the history of the place. The reformers were content with the kitchen of the hotel. The conservative one filled every seat in the Methodist church and planks were brought in and placed on boxes to accommodate the large audience. Many ladies were in attendance, among others Mrs. Fraser and her daughter from seven miles north-west of the village. Thomas Smithson, Esq., ex-warden of Victoria county, ably presided over the large gathering, while addresses were delivered by Messrs. Hughes, Manning and Dickson. The letter represented Mr. McLaughlin and got himself into trouble by

(1) Professing that the Dominion government should have taken for country roads the Trent Canal money, though he had to admit "country roads" are the special care of municipalities and provinces, and that the Ontario government under the constitution, should assist, while the Dominion could not. (2) By pretending that the Dominion government had power to assist in building a bridge over the Burnt River at Kinmount, though he knew only the Ontario government and the municipalities could do such. He also knew the Dominion government could not assist in building a bridge unless the waterway were navigable. (3) By trying to deceive the audience, that goods from Great Britain were charged a higher rate of duty than similar goods from the United States. The audience had little sympathy with Mr. Dickson's attempts to mislead. At the conclusion of the meeting some in the audience called on Mr. Wm. Manning, county president of the patron organization. It was known that leading reformers had seen him and tried to induce him to take action against Mr. Hughes; so the surprise and delight of the conservatives were great to hear him declare himself a staunch supporter of Mr. Hughes and the old conservative party. Mr. Manning explained how the patrons, having no man in the field, the lodge had passed a resolution authorizing each member to support whom he pleased. Therefore, had Mr. Manning thrown in his lot for the conservative party, though there were some minor matters in its policy, he, like Mr. Hughes and other independent men, did not approve of. But all in all it was far the best for the country and gave promise in its preferential trade policy by being still of greater benefit than ever to the farmers of Canada. Mr. Manning was heartily applauded during his speech.

CAMERON on Saturday night was also a rousing meeting, the orange hall being more than packed. Manley Maybee, Esq., made a pleasant and most capable chairman. Addresses were delivered by George S. Houston, Esq., of Norland; Wm. Manning, Esq., of Hartley; Mr. Dickson and Mr. Hughes. Mr. Houston made a telling speech, his first lengthy speech in the campaign, and like Mr. Manning, proved himself a most capable orator. Mr. Dickson avoided the mistakes made at Glenarm, but forgot himself in making a personal attack on Mr. Houston and in referring to the contents of a private letter written by Mr. Houston to Mr. Dickson at a time when it was rumored Mr. Hughes would accede to the many requests made that he should run for South instead of North Victoria. Mr. Hughes refused to desert his tried and true friends of North Victoria, so Mr. Houston at once had broken off all proposals made to Mr. Dickson. Mr. Hughes arrived late from Toronto but while received in a most hearty manner by his hosts of friends at Cameron, yet found two most capable speakers filling his place in the persons of Messrs. Houston and Manning.

Next week's meetings are billed. They and those thereafter will be addressed by Messrs. J. H. Carnegie, M.P.P.; Wm. Manning, president patrons of industry; Geo. S. Houston, president of the C.P.A.; Dr. J. W. Wood, president of the conservative association; Wm. McKee of Eldon; John Ray, J.P., of Kirkfield; Geo. Laidlaw, reeve of Bexley, and others.

The utmost enthusiasm everywhere prevails and as one elector stated the case, "Tories, Orangemen, Independent reformers, P.P.A.'s and roman catholics are joining to support Sam. Hughes and roll up such a grand majority for him as will show the government and Sam that the people of North Victoria appreciate his and their conduct towards the riding. There is no fear of defeat though not a stone will be left unturned to win by the conservatives. The third party candidate will not take ten votes in Eldon, Fenelon, Fenelon Falls, Carden, Dalton, Bexley, Laxton, Digby, Longford, Somerville, Woodville and Galway. Those are the only places yet visited by Mr. Hughes, though reports from the other parts of the riding are even more favorable.

GRAND ORANGE LODGE ELECTIONS.

On going to press we learn by despatch from Collingwood, where the Grand Orange Lodge of British North America has been in session, of the following elections: Grand Master, N. C. Wallace, re-elected. Deputy Grand Master, Armstrong, re-elected. Grand Chaplain, Rev. W. F. Wilson. Grand Secretary, Robert Birmingham, re-elected. Major Hughes and several other officers were also re-elected.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Mr. Ross admits that Canada cannot have free trade. What do those liberals mean anyhow?

This country cannot have free trade all around. Mr. Ross says so and the conservatives say so, and it must be true.

Messrs. McLaughlin and Delamere should ride a tandem through North Victoria. They would make a good team.

The old country papers think that it would be a mistake for Canada to change her present government. Canadians and Englishmen think alike.

Mr. Ross thinks and says that the poor man cannot take care of himself. According to that there must be a heap of millionaires in this country.

The Globe gave about three lines the other day explaining the beauties of North Victoria's lakes. Poor Globe, how the people pity your ignorance!

The girls gave a very feeble cheer for the Queen at their meeting last Friday night. Strange, those liberal leaders never grow enthusiastic over anything British.

The Washington Post says, "Our people pray for a liberal victory." The Yankees have been praying for a long time. Let us hope that they will be compelled to pray always.

In his speech at Lindsay last Friday night the Hon. G. W. Ross said that "Sir Oliver Mowat never lets go of anything." Not much—as the liberals well know. Sir Oliver takes a firmer hold of his present task, and then reaches out for a ministerial chair. Wise man, Sir Oliver.

Hon. G. W. Ross thinks that the acts of our ancestors should govern us to-day. There will be one case in which that will happen,—on the 23rd of June. Look for results. The conservative party as in days of yore will be the party in whom the people will trust the government of young Canada.

The Toronto Globe complains that the liberal fund for this campaign is not a hundred thousand dollars, is not big enough even to meet legitimate expenses. How Mr. Laurier must miss the liberal government of his friends at Quebec, with its letters of credit and its railway subsidy sales and its commissions on payments to contractors, and its other corrupt ways of raising money for his political war chest!

Howdism at Station.

To the Editor of The Warbler. DEAR SIR,—As a citizen who values the public safety of this town, I would like to ask what the town intend doing about the dangerous affair at the station last Monday night, when an organized mob attacked a Toronto lad who was spending the day with his parents in town. If something is not done with the tongs and the noose, this town, public safety will soon be at a very low premium. Yours, CITIZEN.

Mr. Bryson sr., of Cameron, was in town Wednesday. The party that suits Washington does not suit Canada.

Charley "the Frenchman" will be at Veitch's hotel, Saturday.

Miss Sarah McArthur of Fenelon Falls was in town Wednesday.

Keep cool during the coming elections by using F&L ice cream.

Master Harry Jones of Toronto has been visiting friends in town this week.

Dr. Bryson of Chicago, is visiting his sister Mrs. E. Oldenning of Cambridge street.

Boys should remember that there is a heavy fine for killing any song bird or breaking up its nest.

Rev. Mr. Ross of Cannington has accepted a call to Paris, Ont., and will go there immediately.

Mr. Devitt of Neeland's dental rooms, is spending a week's holiday at his home near Blackstock.

Nearly every small boy had 76 fire-crackers on the 25th and a great big one for the Queen to grow on.

Mr. Down of Boboyagon was in town this week, travelling with a new book of "Talmage," "The Earth Girlie."

Mr. John McGarr, Pool street is improving his residence by having a new kitchen built, veneered with white brick.

Attention is drawn elsewhere in our columns to the announcement of the meetings in the interest of Major Sam Hughes.

Note the dates of meetings for the next three weeks in the interest of Major Sam Hughes as seen in another column.

It is just probable that the next June conference of the Methodist church will be held in Lindsay in June of next year.

The annual meeting of the East Victoria Farmers' Institute will be held in Dickson's hall, Fenelon Falls, on Tuesday, the 9th of June, at one o'clock.

Last Sunday being the Queen's birthday, the Sons of England paraded to the Baptist church, where the Rev. Mr. Hinchon presided with his usual tact and ability.

A bright little boy asked his father the other day if those heaps of street refuse that the town placed near Robson's store were "some of them mound builders' huts."

When you see a man digging in his yard very slowly and often stopping to rest, he is digging a flower bed for his wife. If he digs fast and never stops he's digging for fish bait.

Many south ward residents were devious of knowing what became of Sgt. Major Martin's cannon on the 25th. If it be not spiked perhaps we may hear the familiar old boom on Dominion day.

Messrs. F. C. Taylor, Judge Deas, F. A. McFarlane, B. F. Reeves and Joseph Stapp will attend as lay delegates from this district, to the Methodist conference in Trenton in June.

An excellent player on a real Irish harp, and a young boy singer gave considerable entertainment on the streets last week. They were from New York and took in a good many odd nickels.

The boys' brigades of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches are making fast progress. The Methodist boys drill on Fridays. Citizens are anxiously waiting for their "drub."

Mr. Duncan McIntyre of Argyll is building a large house on his premises, Bryans & Co. shipped a car load of lumber to Mr. McIntyre last week. The lumber was of the very best quality. The popularity of this enterprising Lindsay firm is fast increasing throughout the county and business is brisk with them.

A Victoria, (British Columbia) street car loaded with excursionists broke through a bridge on the 25th, plunging some two hundred people into the water below. It is estimated that nearly one hundred people have been drowned and killed—wonderful! The car was that of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Jordan, formerly of Fenelon Falls and Lindsay. They were in a buggy on the bridge at the time and went down with the crash. They managed to get on top of the submerged car however from whence they were rescued.

Dr. Butler's Golden Pills have earned a great reputation wherever employed. As a nerve tonic and blood builder they are unrivalled. The Weather for Colds.

This is the time when colds are in the fashion—every body who is anybody has one if not himself there's one in the family. For no complaint under the sun are there more remedies than for a cold in the head, but of the thousands Chase's Catarrh Cure is the best. "In twelve hours I was cured of a bad cold in the head by Chase's Cure," writes Miss Dwyer, Alliston, Ont. 26c. of all druggists, with blower free.—94-ly.

Completely Knocked Out.

"I was so much run down I had to give up work, and I felt as if life was not worth living," writes Wm. W. Thompson, Zephyr. "I took Scott's Sarsaparilla and am now feeling as I did years ago." Scott's Sarsaparilla tones up the entire system, purifies the blood, and eradicates rheumatism and poisons. Ask for Scott's and get it.—94-ly.

Letters Come.

Letters come day by day telling us that this person has been cured of dyspepsia, that person of Bad Blood, and another of Head-ache, still another of Biliousness, and yet others of various complaints of the Stomach; Liver, Bowels or Blood, all through the intelligent use of Burdock Blood Bitters.

It is the voice of the people recognizing the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters cures all diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels and Blood.

Mr. T. G. Ludlow, 334 Colborne Street, Brantford, Ont., says: "During seven years prior to 1886, my wife was sick all the time with violent headaches. Her head was so hot that it felt like burning up. She was weak, run down, and so feeble that she could hardly do anything, and so nervous that the least noise started her. Night or day she could not rest and life was a misery to her. I tried all kinds of medicines and treatment for her but she steadily grew worse until I bought six bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters from C. Stork & Son, of Brantford, Ont., for which I paid $5.00, and it was the best investment I ever made in my life. Mrs. Ludlow took four out of the six bottles—there was no need of the other two, for those four bottles made her a strong, healthy woman, and removed every ailment from which she had suffered, and she enjoyed the most vigorous health. That five dollars saved me lots of money in medicine and attendance thereafter, and better than that it made home a comfort to me."

Some Sudden Deaths!

SPRING WEATHER CHANGES ARE THE CAUSE.

Morrow, merchant, Fullerton, Ont.; Wm. T. Thompson, Zephyr, Ont.; Geo. Denham, druggist, Petrola, Ont.; W. S. Bond, merchant, Lloydown, Ont.; Joseph Duncan, farmer, Petrola, Ont.; Miss Hattie Delaney, 174 Crawford St., Toronto; M. N. Delee, merchant, Zephyr, or Wm. Cornish, Fullerton. Over 5000 other names on application.

Old people, and young and middle aged as well, should fortify themselves for spring by enriching the blood and purifying the system. There is only one palatable and effective medicine for this purpose and that is

One dollar will buy a bottle of Scott's Sarsaparilla; one bottle is a sure guarantee against the diseases of spring; every reliable dealer keeps this kind of blood purifier; ask for it; don't take anything else. If you can't get it in your own neighborhood write to the manufacturer. ••••• Johnson Bates & Co., 5 Lombard Street, Toronto.
