Diamond Dust.

The baseball league, composed of four teams, the Drug-Dealers, the Mill, the Dry Goods, and the Watchman nine, was opened on Thursday last week, when the Dry Goods team tried conclusions with the Drug-Dealers and was defeated by a score of 13 to 1. The battery for the home was T. Burke and W. Ferguson, while their opponents had Morris and Gros. It being the first game played this season neither side showed up well, although we expect something better from them before the season is over. The season will have in their possession a trophy, presented to the league by A. G. Spalding, for a year or until another team defeats them.

One Honest Man.

DEAR EDITOR:—Please inform your readers, that if written to confidentially I will mail in a sealed letter, particulars of a genuine, honest home cure, by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor, after years of suffering from nervous debility, sexual weakness, night losses and weak chronic parts. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong, and wish to make this certain means of cure known to all sufferers. I have nothing to sell, and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness. I promise you perfect secrecy and as I do not wish to expose myself either, please address, simply: F. G. Box 383, London, Ont.

Queries.

The electors of the United States in 1892 put faith in the policy of a free trade tariff reform party.
Has their experience justified their confidence?
Has business in the United States, since 1892, been prosperous?
Are the people of that country satisfied with the results of their act?
Is it wise for Canadians in this juncture to support the United States experiment?
Would business men profit by the repetition in Canada of the experience that in the United States followed the tariff work of 1892?

Campaign Notes.

The first of the series of meetings being held by Dr. Vrooman took place at Fingerboard, Mariposa, on Monday evening. Mr. George Stokes was chairman, the speakers, being Mr. J. D. Flavelle, who gave a practical address on the fiscal policy of the government and its bearing on the trade of the country. Mr. D. R. Anderson followed in behalf of Mr. McHugh, taking the hour allotted him in making as good a defence as possible for a bad cause. After a short address from Mr. Norman MacMurchy, Dr. Vrooman, who was loudly cheered, proceeded to define his position, quietly remarking that his opponents according to the usual custom of their party had been drawing on their imaginations for what they considered the world or would not do in the event of his being elected, reminding Mr. Anderson that they should have waited until this his first meeting, before they would say what he would or would not do; he had no hesitation in saying that he was in entire accord with the policy of the government, but that to remediate legislation he was opposed, and if his vote against the government it would be given. Equal rights to all, special privileges to none was his motto. If the enthusiasm that was evinced at the Fingerboard meeting be taken as a sample of the other parts of the riding, the doctor's majority will far exceed that of his most sanguine supporters.

FENNON FALLS.

From our regular special correspondent.
LAST MONDAY morning Mr. H. Carr, switchman with Howry's yard engine, had the misfortune to catch his foot in some loose planks and fall, breaking his leg in two places. The injured man was conveyed as quickly as possible to his own dwelling, where the limb was set, and he now lies in a low condition but considered out of danger. On the same morning Lon Truogren, who is living on the south side of the bridge, whilst endeavoring to get out a boat from the logs above the slide, was caught in the current and carried over the slide in a beautifully rapid manner. Thanks to Providence he caught a projecting rock to which he was enabled to cling, and assisted from his dangerous perch, a most forlorn looking and thoroughly frightened boy.

Special to The Warden
KINDLY allow me space in your paper to reply to John Christian's letter in the Post of May 29th, re the using of the Methodist church for Political Purposes. Now Mr. Christian's letter is misleading from beginning to end. To prove this statement I wish to give the public some ideas on this building has been used for. For the last two years the orange society have had the use of it for entertainment, so have the sons of Scotland; the temperance society have had the use of it for the past 18 months; there has not been regular services held in it for the past year; two sermons have been preached in it in the course of that time. In short, the official board of the church offered or called for tenders for the sale of the building and every thing else in connection with the property; the sheds have been sold; the furnishings inside the church have been disposed of; the building has been repaired; years ago the party who bought it at the time when it was offered for sale, but who afterwards could not get a suitable deed of the property, so the building was sold to different parties simply to get the cost of the repairs done about the property. Had this meeting been held in the building and every thing else in connection with the property had been sold, Mr. Christian would not have been heard from at all, but it was in the interest of Mr. Hughes, and was one of the grandest political meetings ever held in this village. The Post correspondent says that he would not let Mr. McLaughlin have the building with his consent. In concluding this letter I would say that if Mr. McLaughlin wishes the use of this building when here he shall have it with pleasure.
