

MAKING THINGS HUM!

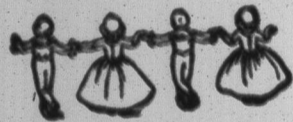

CLEARING OUT SALE OF BALANCE OF THE GREAT ARMY AND NAVY STOCK

We have determined to make this store fairly "hum" with busy trade for the next two weeks. Such prices as these named, and hundreds not here mentioned, are positively without equal. Low prices, without the supporting crutches of style and quality, are meaningless. Come to Gough's this week and see if our hard-to-believe prices don't go hand in hand with

MANEY GROVE—ELDON.
Special to The Waddee.
The following resolution of condolence was passed at a recent meeting of the board of management of St. Andrew's church, Eldon, to Mrs. Nell Smith and family, relatives of the late esteemed and lamented Miss Christina Smith:
Whereas it has pleased Almighty God in His dispensation of His omnipotent and everlasting Providence to take away from us in the person of the late esteemed and deeply lamented Miss Christina Smith, one whom we have all learned to respect and love as a sister in Christ Jesus, we desire to memorialize in these few sentences to you our deep respect for the deceased and our profound regret at her unexpected death. It is with feelings of profound regret we realize her loss to the church as a member of the same, as a contributor in the same of praise services of the congregation, and as a member of the U.E. and W.F.M. Societies of our church. Yet while we mourn her absence here, we are rejoiced in knowing that she has been translated to a better land, to the "Heaven" beyond the tomb, there to the saints and redeemed of God in glory to sing her Master's praises eternally.
With the sincere sympathies of the entire congregation in this hour of grievous affliction, though not hopeless sorrow, we commend you to the God of all grace, and to the unending love of our Lord Jesus Christ, which alone is able to console, cheer and comfort, as no feeble words or aid of man can.

We are yours in Christian faith, love and fellowship,
THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT OF St. Andrew's Church, Eldon.

Thicker than Water.
We ain't the delight o' the nnytons, the dawlin' and pet o' the world; They wike when they sees us a-comin', Their lips is sawcelessly curled.
They as the opynun—it's one as they don't like no pines for cornucop.
As we fight in the oldest causes, but makes us bit art o' the deal,
And trusts us, believe'n they knows jest what sort o' portier we are,
As far as they're into for chuck us—thenks us on their side as isn't far.
It's winkin', an' grinnin', an' jab'rin', an' don't go no further nor that,
But whichever's the popplur nnyton, it isn't quite Britan—that's flat.
Dunno 'ow it is, but it is so, and us and the world don't agree;
I pray we likes up too much o' the atlas fur one little speck in the sea,
And sometimes we as bin in error—it's no good a-shinkin' the fact;
An' sometimes when we've bin in error, it's somebody else as gort whack.
'Arrever it is, ere we're standin'—ereot, but we're standin' alone,
And knowe if we warnts a thing done, then we gort ter do that on our own;
And the whisper it runs through the nnytons, whenever ar' condus' offendin';
'Grite Britan' it gits 'arf-a-brick ready, she ain't gort no friends.

No friends! it may be, but we might 'ave. Their's writin' it is so fully an ill efface, There's a tie as no bully can loosen, the tie between men o' one race.
The orders as Nyechar as written cawn't never be rubbed out agone,
And the sword, with its blunders and bloodshed, saws 'ard at that tie, but in vined. And nar, when the sky's clardin' over, the sarned of the battle is near,
The voice of ar' pines staws 'speakin', the 'nt as it offers is clear;
'Friend Jonathan—sposin' you warnts us—remember we're eye.

Standing at the corner of the postoffice building this morning I noticed a young lady come out with a bundle of mail. She hastily tore the wrapper off a bulky package, looked at it a moment and then with an almost angry exclamation threw it with all her might into the street. I inspected the package and found that it was a catalogue from the large departmental store of St. Simpson & Co. If all of the immense number of these catalogues that come through the postoffice here were treated in a similar manner, Port Hope would be a more prosperous town.—Port Hope Times.

Albert Babcock, who was brought here from Lindsay a couple of weeks ago suffering with appendicitis was removed to his home this morning in a convalescent state. He was operated on by Dr. Carmichael about ten days ago, the treatment being very successful.—Peterboro Review.

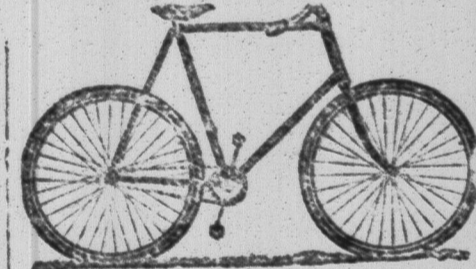

Mr. Dan Foley, who has been with Mr. P. Clunan at the Queen's hotel, has arranged to conduct the hotel at Jubilee Point known and popular hotel man, and should have a very successful summer at the Point.—Peterboro Review.

FURIOUS DRIVING.—Fast driving on Kent street is an old complaint and a nuisance and a danger to all, but last Tuesday evening capped everything that has been done before. A regular race took place between horses driven by a couple of sporting gentlemen, and men, women, children, bicycles, and all else had to rush for the side of the road to keep from being run down. The police should stop this business—and at once.

The War and the Markets
This morning for the first time will the everyday citizen of Toronto feel the direct effect of the Spanish American war. The phenomena advance in the price of wheat and flour the past few days has caused the local bakers to move, and this morning the four-pound loaf which heretofore has been sold for 12 cents will cost 14 cents, while the erstwhile ten cent three-pound loaf will now be worth 12 cents.

Meantime breadstuffs continue to advance both in America and Europe. July wheat rose another 1 1/2 at Chicago yesterday, while at Liverpool spot wheat and the May delivery advanced 3d. English country markets were up and the Leeds Corn Millers' Association again raised their quotations on flour, making a clear advance for the current week of just 6s per quarter. Paris reported gains of 10 to 55 centimes on wheat for the day, and Antwerp another extreme leap forward of 1 franc 25 centimes. At Rome the cheapest grade of bread is now 4d a loaf. Corn, peas, lard and cheese are higher in England.
A despatch from New York last night makes marine risks stronger, with American vessels quoted at 12 to 15 per cent, an almost prohibitive rate. Should these charges become absolutely prohibitive the flow of grain from United States ports would cease, and the result might be that while wheat would continue to rise in Europe it might recede in price on this side of the water. The more probable effect, however, of the stoppage of shipments from United States ports would be the diverting of the big western stores of grain via the Canadian lakes and rails to Montreal and Quebec, and thence across the Atlantic.

It is stated that agents of the United States Government have visited Montreal, Toronto, Windsor and other points and arranged for the purchase of 5000 horses for use in the American cavalry corps.—Toronto World, April 28.

Matanzas Bombarded.
With the fleet off Cuba, April 27.—This afternoon Admiral Sampson, with the flagship New York, the monitor Puritan and the cruiser New York, bombarded the fort and city of Matanzas, almost destroying the guns of the forts being shelled in sixteen minutes. There is no means of knowing except from intelligence what the casualties on land were, but from appearances they must have been considerable. The squadron came out of the engagement without a scratch.

Robert Dornier who was arrested last week by Constable Reeves, for burglary of the store of Dundas & Flavell Bros. after two remands, pleaded guilty before Magistrate McIntyre on Wednesday, and was remanded until Tuesday 3rd May for sentence.

The Daniel Stinson who was arrested as an accomplice, was released on bail to appear before the police magistrate to-day Friday.
