BALSAM OF ANISEED

The Dundae Banner, one of the Liberal stand bye in Haldimand, rires to remark that the country did not intend, when it turned the Torice out, to put in men who would increase the debt in two years by several millions, and the annual expenditure by four millions, and whose party repre entatives would desert incir constituencies to seek places of case and emolument in the public service. The remark is added that these are not the things that will circumpten the Liberal party against the coming of the next general elections. Ohers have made remarks of the same tenor, but they do not seem to be heeded at Ottawe, unless the rush of members to get offices in a sign that the time of the next election is a time of fear.

W. E. Gladstone —Gentlemen, you need not give yourselves any trouble about the revenue. The question of revenue must never stand in the way of needed reforms. Besides, with a sober population, not wasting their earnings, I shall know where to obtain the revenue. Six Stafford Northects.—If the revenue temperance the amount of wealth such a change would bring to the nation would niterly throw into the shade the amount utterly throw into the shade the amount of revenue that is now derived from the spirit duty; and we should not only see with satisfaction a diminution of the revenue from such a cause, but should find in various ways that the Exchequer would not suffer from the losses which it might sustain in that direction.
