Not the Girl I Care About.

There are girls of every station with a liking for a station, to whose company a pleasant hour I've spent.

Take the type that's strong up lately, rather masculine and sturdy. With a well developed chin and close-cropped hair.

Well she rises with the lark and she soon has in the park. She's a lady there's a lot of wear and tear about.

There's a wealth of education in your youthful admiration. For the divine who dances at the Hall.

For there's something in her dancing, so unique and so entrancing. That you worship every evening at her shrine.
