EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Hamilton Herald says that it will require a Minto money to run Rideau Hill during the next four years.

Montreal Gazette.—Mr. Mulock's map and cheap sentimental motto informing the world that "We hold a vaster empire than has been," will make the new two-cent stamp like a miniature, freak poster. The older empires might not be as big, but they did not boom themselves in this fashion, nor do self-respecting imperialists of the present day.

It is understood that Lord Mountstephen has given the sum of $2,800,000 to a number of relatives in Canada and England, that they might enjoy it while he is yet living. He is as wise as he is philanthropic and generous, for the gift will give him more pleasure now than waiting till death compelled him to disgorge his riches.

Canada can now boast of having no less than three of her own native and to the manor born, sitting in the House of Lords. These are Baron Haliburton, recently elevated; the Earl of Carnarvon and the Earl of Elgin. The last-named peer is now returning to England after having successfully governed the great Empire of India for five years, a territory larger than the continent of Europe, without Russia.

A young lad at Beverton has been arrested on a charge of brutally murdering an old man. The boy had a very bad record, and was recently let go on suspended sentence. A lad of similar character was treated in the same way at Lindsay, and he also murdered an old man. There seems too often to be an awful perversity about the way philanthropy gets in its work. A boy that is known to engage the eyes out of a cat for fish bait would be hanged before he committed murder.—Bobogayon Independent.

On page three we publish a synopsis of an address on "Imperialism," delivered by the Rev. J. W. Macdonald in St. Andrew's church, on the morning of Thanksgiving day. Imperialism is a word much used these days and we fear is a little understood by the great majority of those who so flippantly command it to give flesh to a gibbering sentence or to add impression to a rambling flow of words. The idea of imperialism is a huge one, and one not quickly grasped, nor explained in a few sentences. We recommend everyone to read the views of the talented Presbyterian on the subject.

Carroll Sagave writes thus to the N. Y. Times:—I have never known a Christian Scientist to get a elder in his eye who did not call on a physician to take it out. They know it is past the power of Christian Science to do it, and yet, after getting relief, never fail to strike a malicious blow at the hand that helped them. They say that medicine is a god, and that in taking it one breaks the first Commandment.

Many persons cannot take plain cod-liver oil. They cannot digest it. It upsets the stomach. Knowing these things, we have digested the oil in Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites; that is, we have broken it up into little globules, or droplets.

We use machinery to do the work of the digestive organs, and you obtain the good effects of the digested oil at once. That is why you can take Scott's Emulsion.

ment, but if they themselves need it, they are not above making use of it privately, though they would swear they did not do it. Never before has the world known a secret which was so widely known as this. Christianly, and the men and women who commit the crime brag that they can never be punished for it.

Dec. 4.—Auction sale of household furniture on Tuesday, Dec 6, 1898, at one o'clock sharp, the property of Mrs D W O'Connell at Woodville.

The Proposed Historical Society. To the Editor of The Warper.

Sir.—I am much pleased to see the proposition of a Historical Society for Victoria likely to be carried into effect. If being a native of the county would entitle me to membership, as I suppose it would, I am glad to put down my name for a "charter member."

Full Notice. The Victoria county fall census opened on Monday afternoon, Nov. 29, 1898, at one o'clock sharp, the property of Mrs D W O'Connell at Woodville.

The grand jury was composed of the following gentlemen: Geo. Beal, foreman; Jas. L. Arnold, Henry McKay, William O'Brien, Michael O'Halloran, John S. Peris, Thomas S. Jackson, William Matheson, J. Washington, J. Watson, W. E. Swan and Wm. Stewart.

The following were the cases tried:— CIVIL CASES. Rutherford vs Jackson.—This was an action for slander brought by Mr. Rutherford as cheese maker, late of the North Ops cheese factory, against Mr. John Jackson, secretary of the factory, claiming that Jackson had said that he, Rutherford, had during the season of 1897 burnt cheese and had also taken cheese out of the factory which he had given no proper account to the patrons, meaning thereby that he, Rutherford, had stolen the cheese of the factory. Mr. Rutherford also claimed that these slanders had injured his character and asked $3000 damages against Mr. Jackson. After a lengthy trial in which these charges were fully investigated the jury brought in a verdict acquitting Jackson and awarding costs to the plaintiff, Mr. Rutherford, J. S. Watson, Q. C., Toronto, and Moore & Jackson for the defendant Jackson.

Daly vs Wood.—An action brought for illegal distress. The defendant Wood held a mortgage on plaintiff's, Daly's, furniture, and it was charged that he had made an illegal seizure without just cause. The case was ultimately settled, each party paying their own costs. G. A. Armstrong, Cobourg, for plaintiff; F. A. Armstrong, Cobourg, for defendant.

CRIMINAL CASES. Queen vs Maybee.—Charge of rape preferred by a woman named Keith. The defendant was acquitted. F. L. Webb, for the crown; Knap & Wilson, for the defence.

Queen vs Orvell, G. Chambers, W. Chambers, H. Campbell. A girl named Lily Stockdale brought a charge of rape against all four. Orvell was the first tried. Verdict not guilty. F. L. Webb for the crown, H. O'Leary, Q. C., Toronto, and Armstrong, for the defence.

Thursday morning.—The trial of G. Chambers, W. Chambers and H. Campbell, charged with rape on the girl Stockdale, was proceeded with this morning. The trial of Orvell who was acquitted probably had a bearing on the case as the crown consented to the charge being changed to that of indecent assault. No evidence being offered by the defence the jury, by direction of the court, rendered a verdict of guilty. His Lordship after a severe reprimand to the counsel let them go on suspended sentence. F. L. Webb for the crown, D. R. Anderson for prisoners.

GRAND JURY PRESENTMENT. May I Please Your Lordship.—The Grand Jurors of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, assembled at the Court of Assize for the County of Victoria, beg to make their presentment as follows.

They desire to thank your Lordship for your address at the opening of the Court, and for the reference to matters affecting the rights and interests of the people. The care of the destitute is the feature that most directly affects the County of Victoria. The Grand Jury are of opinion that this unfortunate class should be housed and cared for otherwise than in the county jail. As to the method to be adopted the Grand Jury can scarcely express a definite opinion owing to the limited time for consideration. The Grand Jury understand the County Council has made provision for taking a vote on the question of the erection of a house of refuge at the coming municipal elections, and doubtless the matter will be fully discussed by the electors.

They have visited the goal and find the premises in excellent condition. It is gratifying to find that the County Council has recently placed sanitary appliances in the building by introducing water for closet purposes in all the wards. This is an improvement that will facilitate the good management of the prison. The Gaoler has courteously explained the new system, and has afforded every opportunity for examining the premises. There are nine persons in the prison, all males. With the exception of the serious cases being tried at this Court the charges charged are of a minor character. All the prisoners express themselves satisfied with the treatment they receive.

It is cause for sincere regret that a condition of moral depravity exists, so far as is indicated by the cases which have been submitted for the consideration of the grand jury, and the fact that several of the persons charged are of a minor character. It is to be deplored.

The Grand Jury would express their appreciation of the courtesy extended to them by the sheriff, the Crown Counsel and other officers of the Court. All of which is humbly submitted.

From our regular special correspondent. BIRMINGHAM FALLS. A SOCIAL was given in the lecture room of St. Andrew's church on last Friday evening which furnished a substantial amount of relief to the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon prior to their departure for Hillsburg. Mr. Jas. Diez was appointed chairman and filled the position in his usual able manner. Addresses, short and touching were also given by Messrs. Ismyr, F. D. Donnell, Fair and B. M. Mason. All spoke in the same strain, expressing deep sympathy for the departure of Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon. During the evening Mrs. J. H. Brandon presented Mrs. McKinnon with a very handsome diamond set of Haviland's design from the ladies of St. Andrew's church and read the following address.

Dear Mrs. McKinnon.—It is with full hearts that we assemble this evening knowing as we do that the time of your departure draws near and that your labours amongst us must end in a very few days, we however desire to express our sincere sympathy, to remain with us for so long a period, as during your stay with us you have laboured incessantly to advance the interests of the congregation and to arouse in our hearts, to enlist sympathy, and to stimulate effort in the aid of the missionaries of our church, who have taken their lives in their hands and are living and dying in deepest sympathy with you. We are proud to be associated with you in your noble and self-sacrificing work. We are proud to be associated with you in your noble and self-sacrificing work. We are proud to be associated with you in your noble and self-sacrificing work.

What is the cause of all this? Impure blood. And the remedy? Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

It clears out the channels through which poisons are carried from the body. When all impurities are removed from the blood nature takes right hold and completes the cure. If there is constipation, take Ayer's Pills. They awaken the drooping action of the liver; they cure biliousness.

Write to our Doctor. We have the extensive services of some of the most eminent physicians in the United States. Write freely all the particulars in your case. You will receive a prompt reply, without cost. Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.

Half Sick Half Well

Many persons have their good day and their bad day. Others are half sick all the time. They have headache, backache, and are restless and nervous. Food does not taste good, and the digestion is poor; the skin is dry and sallow and disfigured with pimples or eruptions; sleep brings no rest and work is a burden.
