Obituary. "Leaves have their time to fall and flowers to wither at the north wind's breath. And stars to set but all. Then hie's all seasons for taint, O death."

Judith Hamilton's household suffered a sad bereavement last week in the death of her daughter Miss Jennie who died on Wednesday night. The young lady was only in her 26th year. She was of a bright, winsome disposition and in Stratford, where she was well known, she possessed a very large circle of friends and even during her short residence in Lindsay her friends numbered at a few. The funeral took place on Saturday to the Riverside cemetery and was largely attended. A short service was held at the family residence on Bond st, and at St. Paul's church, where Rev. C. H. Marsh conducted the service and the choir rendered special music. Mr. R. A. Harding, barrister of Stratford, Mr. Wm. Harding, barrister at St. Mary's; and Mr. John Stevenson of Barrie were among those who attended from a distance. The Lindsay Law Association were present in a body, besides a large number of other prominent citizens of the town. The pall bearers were Messrs. L. R. Knight, L. V. O'Connor, B. A. M. J. Kenny, W. Dundas, H. Newberry and G. Richardson.

Personals. Mr. W. W. Logan the popular Piano and Organ Agent of our town returned home on Friday evening after spending a few days on business in Toronto.

Miss Annie Wilson, of Minnesota, Man., is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, Fenelon.

Mr. B. Madill, Bayreton, and Mr. John McArthur, township clerk, Thorah, were in town on Tuesday attending the meeting of Presbytery.

Mr. Ben Cook returned home last week from the British Columbia where he has been for more than a year working at his trade.

Dr. Everett Gladman, house surgeon of one of Montreal's leading hospitals, is spending the Christmas holidays in town the guest of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagarth have removed to Toronto where they will reside in future.

Mr. Kenneth McLennan of the Kingston School of Mines is home for the holidays.

Cadet George B. Hughes of the Royal Military College, Kingston, is spending the Christmas vacation at home. The roles of his college require that he shall wear his uniform during his present holidays.

Mr. Robert Spence, for many years a resident of Fenelon township, but who during the past four years has been residing in North Dakota, arrived in town on Wednesday evening. At present he is the guest of his old friend, Mr. Isaac Moynes of the North Ward.

Mr. Geo. Ayres, express messenger between Toronto and North Bay, spent a few days in town this week, the guest of Mr. T. Wilkinson, Cambridge st.

Mr. Frank Markham, who has been attending the Buffalo Dental College, is home for the holidays.

Mr. Jas. MacMillan of the Toronto Dental College is home for the Christmas vacation.

Mr. W. J. Brown of Trinity Medical, Toronto, was in town on Saturday. He is spending the vacation near Woodville.
