WEDDING BELLS .- The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hazelton, Ops. was the seene of a very pretty affair on Thursday of last week, being the marriage of their second eldest daughter, Miss Emma, to Mr. Ernest Short, of Kilgour Bros.' printing establishment, Toronto, son of license inspector John Short of this town. At four o'clock a large gathering had gathered to witness the impressive marriage, it taking place on the large and beautiful lawn. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. S. Hugheon, B.A., performed by the Rev. L. S. Hughson, B.A., B.D., pastor of the baptist church, assisted by Rev. C. M. Carew, pastor of the Reaboro baptist church. The groom was supported by Mr. Albert Taylor, of Toronto, while Miss Maud Hazelton, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, Misses Eva and Sue Hazelton, also sisters of the bride, assisting as maids of honor. The knot being securely tied the large gathering retired to the dining hall, where a rich repast was in waiting and received ample justice, every one having procured a ample justice, every one having procured a piece of the coveted wedding cake. The bride was the recipient of many presents, which shows the high esteem in which she is held by her numerous friends, one of which was from the ladies of the Dundas & Flavelle Bros.' dry goeds establishment, where she was formerly employed. A lady asks us whether etiquette requires one to knock at the door of a printing office before entering. We hasten to reply. If you are coming to pay your subscription or bring in a nice item of news, don't stop to knock, but just walk right in as if you owned the place. If, on the other hand, you are cut on a collecting tour, you should make the fact known a few minutes previously, so we can be prepared to close the windows and bar the door—then it will be all right to knock.
